BOB NUTTING

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Robert (Bob) Nutting serves as Chairman of the Board of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Bob assumed control of the club in 2007, thus becoming the sixth principal owner in the history of the Pittsburgh Pirates. He has served as Chairman of the Board and represented his family's interest in the club since 2003.

Since Nutting assumed control, the Pirates have consistently built an organization focused on success both on and off the field. As a result, the club is positioned stronger than it has been in decades.

On the Major League level, the club won 94 games in 2013 and made its first postseason appearance since 1992. The Pirates are also well positioned to build on that success as the club's farm system is ranked No. 1 in all of baseball by Baseball America going into the 2014 season.

Under Nutting's leadership, the Pirates have been committed to infusing talent at every level of the organization. The club has been the most aggressive team in Major League Baseball in investing and acquiring talent through the Amateur Draft and has significantly increased its focus on signing top international amateur talent.

Nutting's tenure has included the construction of the Pirates training academy in the Dominican Republic, the efforts to rebuild Pirates City and McKechnie Field - the Pirates Spring Training facilities Bradenton, FL - and the purchase of a Florida State League franchise, the Bradenton Marauders.

Nutting has also demonstrated his commitment to ensure that Pittsburgh remains home to "The Best Ballpark in America" by enhancing and promoting the family friendly environment at PNC Park through numerous upgrades and new amenities at the ballpark.

Nutting's family roots in the greater Pittsburgh region date back as long as the Pirates 127year history. His dedication to giving back to the community in every aspect of his life has brought a newfound philanthropic commitment to the organization.

Nutting has led Pirates Charities, the Club's official philanthropic arm, in making an even deeper, positive impact off the field by being actively engaged the community. Pirates Charities is focused on the core pillars of improving youth health, fitness and education, along with supporting those affected by cancer and supporting military personnel and their families. Pirates Charities signature programs include it's involvement and support of Miracle League programs, which provide baseball opportunities for children and adults with special needs, and the "Fields for Kids" matching grant programs that assists local youth baseball and softball organizations keep their playing fields in good condition. Overall, the Pirates and Pirates Charities, support more than 3,000 community organizations each year.

Mr. Nutting was instrumental in the opening of the Miracle League of Ohio Valley; one of six Miracle League fields that Pirates Charities has supported since 2009.

Mr. Nutting was honored in March 2013 by the National Resource Defense Council (NRDC) for his leadership in the sports industry's movement to adopt sustainable business practices.

An avid outdoorsman and conservationist, Nutting is the driving force behind the Pirates award-winning "Let's Go Bucs. Let's Go Green." initiative to make PNC Park operations more environmentally friendly. The program has been widely recognized as one of the best in professional sports.

Nutting brings a long history of building successful organizations and a multi-generational commitment to the economic growth in the Pittsburgh region. He also serves as President and CEO of Ogden Newspapers, Inc., and Chairman of Seven Springs Mountain Resort.

NEAL HUNTINGTON

Neal Huntington was named Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates on September 25, 2007, thus becoming the 12th G.M. in the history of the club. In this role, he is responsible for the entire baseball operations department, which includes overseeing the Major League club and scouting and player development systems.

Frank Coonelly was named President of the Pittsburgh Pirates on September 13, 2007, and is responsible for the

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

During his tenure, Huntington and his staff have systematically restructured how the Pirates evaluate, acquire, develop and retain players and staff members with the goal of building the Pirates into a consistent championship caliber organization. Neal has overseen the rebuilding and reconfiguration of the Pirates front office, scouting and coaching staffs as well as the retooling of the Pirates 40 man roster and minor league system. Those efforts played a role in the Pirates winning 94 regular season games (fifth-most in MLB) in 2013, in addition to beating the Cincinnati Reds in the National League Wild Card Game before being beaten in the fifth and final game of their best-of-five series against the eventual N.L. Champion St. Louis Cardinals in the Division Series.

Additionally, the Pirates have allocated significant resources into the First-Year Player Draft and toward international amateur talent acquisition which has resulted in the Pirates farm system moving from being one of the worst in MLB to among the best in the game, including a No. 1 ranking by Baseball America entering the 2014 season.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Neal worked as a Special Assistant to the General Manager for the 2007 American League Central Division champion Cleveland Indians. In his role as Special Assistant to the General Manager, Huntington served as an evaluator and advisor for Cleveland General Manager Mark Shapiro, providing recommendations regarding personnel, strategic planning and decision making. Neal also scouted major and minor league players and provided recommendations with respect to player evaluation, acquisition and retention. He also provided scouting evaluations on players within the Indians organization while doing advance scouting work for a portion of the Indians' opponents.

Huntington began his association with the Indians in 1998 as the Assistant Director of Minor League operations. In November of 1998, Neal took over as Cleveland's Director of Player Development. In that role he instilled a holistic developmental philosophy that focused on the systematic development of the person as well as the player. He also oversaw the Indians player development system, including Latin American Field Operations. After being promoted to the title of Assistant General Manager on November 1, 2001, Huntington assisted Shapiro in all areas of the day-to-day operation of the major league club, concentrating particularly in player evaluation, acquisition and retention.

Neal began his major league career in the Montreal Expos organization on June 1, 1992. He spent the 1994 campaign as the video advance scout for the Expos major league club and was then promoted to Assistant Director, Player Development after the 1994 season, where he assisted in all aspects of Montreal's Player Development system.

PERSONAL: Neal Alden Huntington...Born on 2/4/69 in Amherst, NH...Wife's name is Becca...Has two sons and one daughter...Was raised on a family-owned and operated dairy farm in Amherst...Played four years of baseball at Amherst College in Massachusetts, where he graduated in 1991 with a degree in Psychology...Was named a Division III second-team All-American first baseman and first-team All New England first baseman after his senior season...Also holds a Masters of Science in Sport Management from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

GREG SMITH

Greg Smith is in his third season as Assistant General Manager after spending four years as Pittsburgh's Director of Scouting, He joined the organization on November 7, 2007.

In his current role, Greg provides recommendations to General Manager Neal Huntington regarding personnel, strategic planning and decision making for the Baseball Operations department. He also oversees all scouting efforts and works closely with Scouting Director Joe DelliCarri and the entire scouting staff, including Tyrone Brooks, who manages the professional scouts and Rene Gayo, who directs the International group focusing on the Caribbean.

Smith oversaw four drafts with the Pirates and they were some of the most successful in all of baseball. In 2008, Smith spearheaded the club's First-Year Player Draft efforts and selected Vanderbilt third baseman Pedro Alvarez - who was rated by Baseball America as the "No. 1 prospect" in the draft - with the second pick overall. The Pirates signed 32 of their 50 picks from the 2008 draft and selected 33 players from the college ranks.

Smith and his staff followed up with another strong draft in 2009, signing each of the first 14 selections and 23 overall. In 2010, the Pirates strengthened their pitching depth by selecting a pitcher in 12 of the first 14 rounds. Jameson Taillon, considered by many to be the top high school pitching prospect in the country, was selected first by Smith and his staff in the annual draft. Among the 50 total players drafted by the Pirates in 2010, 27 were signed, including 16 pitchers.

The Pirates had the first overall pick in the 2011 First-Year Player Draft and selected UCLA RHP Gerrit Cole. Cole, who was considered by many publications as one of the best collegiate pitchers available in the 2011 draft, made an immediate impact in his first Major League season with the Pirates in 2013. With their second pick in the 2011 Draft, Smith and his staff selected Texas high school outfielder Josh Bell, a switch-hitter who was committed to playing at the University of Texas before signing with the Pirates. Overall in 2011, the Bucs signed 22 of their 50 draft picks.

Smith is a 24-year scouting veteran, having spent 11 seasons with the Detroit organization, working his last three years (2005-07) as the club's special assignment scout.

Prior to 2005, Greg spent eight seasons (1997-2004) as Detroit's Director of Scouting where he oversaw the First-Year Player Draft and international scouting. He also simultaneously served as the Club's Director of Player Development from 2000-2002. Before joining the Tigers organization, Smith spent seven years (1990-96) as an area scout with the San Diego Padres, covering areas from Florida to Maryland.

Under Smith's guidance, the Tigers selected 2006 American League Rookie of the Year and 2011 A.L. Cy Young Award winner and MVP Justin Verlander with the second overall pick in the 2004 draft. Smith and his staff were rated by Baseball America as having the strongest draft of all 30 Major League clubs in 2002, a year in which the Tigers also selected outfielder Curtis Granderson in the third round and right-handed pitcher Joel Zumaya in the 11th round. Additionally, Greg was directly responsible for the signing of Jair Jurriens as a non-drafted free agent out of Curacao. During Smith's tenure as Director of Scouting, the Tigers signed and developed over 40 players who reached the Major League level.

An outfielder/first baseman during his playing days, Smith signed with the Padres as a free agent on 6/7/88 and played three seasons in the minor leagues with Spokane (1988), Charleston, SC (1989) and Riverside (1990), a club managed by Bruce Bochy.

PERSONAL: Greg was born on 2/2/66 in Chattanooga, TN, and resides in Pittsburgh. He received his bachelor's degree in Sociology in 1988 from Vanderbilt University, where he also played baseball, was named All-American and led the SEC in hitting in 1987, the only player to hit over .400 that season.

KYLE STARK

Kyle Stark is in his third season as Assistant General Manager after spending four years (2008-2011) as Pittsburgh's Director of Player Development. He joined the organization on November 7, 2007.

In his current role, Stark oversees all aspects of development for both players and staff throughout the organization from the Major Leagues down, while also working closely with Farm Director Larry Broadway. In addition, he provides recommendations to General Manager Neal Huntington regarding personnel, strategic planning and decision making for the Baseball Operations department.

During his tenure as the club's Director of Player Development, Stark created a system that was focused on helping all players achieve mastery — personally, mentally, physically, and fundamentally — and develop as professionals.

That has been, and will continue to be accomplished through a relentless, systematic, and cohesive approach involving structured, consistent, progression-oriented instruction throughout the organization and detailed, written development plans for all players.

Prior to joining Huntington's staff, Stark spent four years in Cleveland's Baseball Operations department, assisting in all areas of Scouting, Player Development and Major League Operations. In 2006 and 2007, Stark performed the baseball related duties of the Assistant Farm Director, oversaw the club's efforts in Pacific Rim Scouting, and coordinated the club's Advanced Scouting which included providing scouting reports on upcoming opponents.

PERSONAL: Kyle was born on 7/9/78 in Bradford, PA, and currently resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, Heather, and two sons; Chance (14) and Cooper (7). He is a 1999 graduate of Ball State University and received a law degree from the University of Toledo in 2002 and a master's degree in Business Administration from St. Bonaventure in 2004. In his two years at St. Bonaventure, Stark also served as Pitching Coach for the baseball team.

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

TYRONE BROOKS

The 2014 season marks Tyrone Brooks' fifth year as a member of the Pirates Baseball Operations department. He spent his first two years as the club's Director of Baseball Operations before being named Director of Player Personnel on September 16, 2011.

In his current role, Brooks will lead the Professional Scouting Department and the International Scouting Department (non-Latin American). He will continue to assist General Manager Neal Huntington with strategic planning, personnel moves and decision making for the Baseball Operations department.

PRESONNEL

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Brooks spent three seasons (2007-09) as a Professional Scout with the Cleveland Indians, with an emphasis on the Pacific Coast League, Texas League and California League while giving secondary Major League coverage of the National League West and American League West division teams.

Brooks also spent 11 years working with the Atlanta Braves, most recently as their Director of Baseball Administration in 2006. He originally joined the Braves as their Baseball Operations Trainee in May of 1996 through the club's Career Initiative Program. Ty also served the Atlanta organization as a Baseball Operations Assistant, Area Scouting Supervisor, Assistant, Player Personnel and Director of Baseball Operations.

Brooks is the founder of the Baseball Industry Network, a baseball networking group, that includes over 21,000 members from around the world, covering the full gamut of people working within or connected to the baseball industry. The Baseball Industry Network is currently located on LinkedIn at www.baseballindustrynetwork.com.

Ty is also on the Board of Directors of the Midwest Scouts Association, is a member of the Buck O'Neil Professional Scouts and Coaches Association and sits on the Board of Directors for the North County High School (Glen Burnie, MD) Alumni Scholarship.

PERSONAL: Tyrone was born on 10/9/73 in Bethesda, MD, and currently resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, Stephanie, and daughter Olivia (4). He is a 1996 graduate of the University of Maryland at College Park, where he double-majored in Accounting and Marketing. He was also a staff photographer for the Terrapin Yearbook and the highly-acclaimed student newspaper, The Diamondback, while attending college. Ty was recently named by the New Pittsburgh Courier as one of their 2012 Men of Excellence and he received the Paul "Dizzy" Trout Ambassador Award by the "Pitch and Hit Club" of Chicago on 1/27/13 for his contributions in creating the Baseball Industry Network...Serves on the advisory board of the National Urban Baseball Alliance (www.nuball.org).

KEVAN GRAVES

The 2014 season marks Kevan's sixth year as a member of the Pirates Baseball Operations department, his third as the Director of Baseball Operations. He joined the Pittsburgh organization as a Baseball Operations Assistant on October 31, 2008.

On September 16, 2011, Graves was promoted to Director of Baseball Operations. In his current role, Kevan oversees the day-to-day operations of the Baseball Operations department.

DIRECTOR OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Graves was a member of the inaugural class of the Executive Development Program in the MLB Commissioner's Office, where he worked primarily with the Labor Relations and Baseball Operations Departments on contract analysis and various special projects. As part of the program, he also spent a year with the Minnesota Twins where he split time between the Baseball Operations and Business Development Departments. Additionally, Graves previously worked for the San Francisco Giants Legal Department for two years as well as MLB's Arizona Fall League for one season.

PERSONAL: Kevan was born on 12/11/80 in Berkeley, CA, and currently resides in Pittsburgh with his wife Keri. He is a 2003 graduate of Dartmouth College, where he was a member of the Varsity Baseball team and majored in History.

Pirates Charities is committed to strengthening the community by supporting organizations and programs aimed at improving the lives of children and adults in the greater Pittsburgh region. Pirates Charities places a special emphasis on supporting youth programs focused on health, fitness, and education by developing partnerships with those who share in our mission.

By focusing its charitable contributions, Pirates Charities has enabled the Pirates to support projects and programs that align with its mission, while allowing the organization to continue and expand upon its many community relations activities. Since its inception in the Fall of 2006, Pirates Charities has contributed more than $4 million to the greater Pittsburgh region, Bradenton and Manatee County, Florida and Estorga, Dominican Republic (location of the Pirates Latin American Headquarters).

PIRATES CHARITIES: 2013 PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

MIRACLE LEAGUE FIELDS

In May 2013, Pirates Charities expanded support of Miracle League programs with the grand opening of the Miracle League of the Ohio Valley in Wheeling, West Virginia. Pirates Chairman Bob Nutting, President Frank Coonelly, pitcher Mark Melancon and Broadcasters Greg Brown and John Wehner attended.

In September, Pirates Charities representatives traveled to Indiana, PA where they joined with several community partners to announce the construction of the Pirates Charities Miracle League Field of Indiana County that is scheduled to open in Spring 2015.

Additionally, existing Miracle League programs in Altoona, Cranberry, Murrysville and the South Hills in PA, in Wheeling, WV and in Bradenton, FL were also supported by Pirates Charities in 2013.

FIELDS FOR KIDS

Fields for Kids helps youth baseball and softball organizations improve their fields through matching grants of $1,000-$5,000. Since 2009, Pirates Charities has awarded 137 grants totaling over $600,000 in the greater Pittsburgh region. The program is supported by The Grable Foundation and the H.J. Heinz Company Foundation, and the third round of grants in 2013 was made possible thanks to a $25,000 contribution by Legendary Entertainment Founder and CEO Thomas Tull and his wife, Alba.

PITTSBURGH & BRADENTON RBI (REVIVING BASEBALL IN INNER CITIES)

Pittsburgh RBI is run under the auspices of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Western PA, and provides baseball and softball programming to over 1,000 boys and girls ages 6-18. RBI focuses on instruction and competitive play, provides equipment, coaching and educational programs, and gives participants the opportunity to participate in the City of Pittsburgh's BIG League Sports Program.

Program opportunities are offered throughout the year, and include coaches clinics taught by Pirates alums, an in-season softball clinic conducted by Pirates ballgirls, a financial literacy seminar hosted by KPMG, and participation by two all-star teams in MLB's annual RBI Regional Tournament, which was held in Harrisburg, PA in 2013.

RBI in Bradenton, FL also receives support from Pirates Charities. Bradenton RBI teams are frequent visitors to Pirate City, the Pirates Florida training complex, where they have access to the fields for games and practices, and also attend an annual Holiday Party to celebrate their season.

CLEMENTE DAY SCHOOL INITIATIVE

MLB's league-wide Clemente Day Celebration was held on September 17, 2013 and Pirates players and coaches honored the life and community service legacy of Hall-of-Famer Roberto Clemente by delivering over $40,000 worth of books, iPads, bookbags and supplies to Spring Hill Elementary School in Pittsburgh's North Side. Each year, Pirates Charities selects an elementary school in partnership with the Pittsburgh Promise and Pittsburgh Public Schools to be the Clemente Day beneficiary. In addition to the supplies, the school is treated to an assembly starring Pirates players and coaches.

This year, the team was joined by the Carnegie Science Center who demonstrated the "Science of Baseball" with help from players Andrew McCutchen and Jared Hughes. Several members of the Pirates Wives Organization were also at the school and read to students that they visited in their classrooms.

FANTASY BASEBALL

In 2013, more than 800 students participated in the Pirates Charities Fantasy Baseball Math Program, presented by Chevron. Pirates GM Neal Huntington and his wife, Becca also generously support this curriculum-based program that uses baseball statistics to teach kids math skills, while aligning with Pennsylvania Common Core Standards.

VIP PARTIES

Pirates and Pirates Charities Chairman Bob Nutting hosted a VIP (Very Important Pirate) Party for children and their families each month during the 2013 season. VIP Parties provide deserving children with a night at the ballpark in true VIP style—complete with a private meet-and-greet with Pirates players and coaches, a Pirates replica jersey and a VIP goodie bag for each child. VIP guests participated in a pregame, on-field ceremony and enjoyed great ballpark menu items provided by Levy Restaurants through their Levy Cares program. Participants were selected in cooperation with partner organizations.

2013 VIP groups were The Children's Institute, The Day School; Gilda's Club; Highmark Caring Place; The Miracle League of Southwestern PA; Pittsburgh Promise; Operation Troop Appreciation and the Wounded Warrior Project.

CHARITIES: 2013 FUNDRAISING EFFORTS

PIRATES 5K HOME RUN

Over 3,500 Pirates fans of all ages and abilities came together on April 13, 2013 for the 3rd Annual Pittsburgh Pirates 5K Homerun, presented by ServiceLink. In addition to receiving a complimentary t-shirt and ticket voucher, each runner or walker had the opportunity to cross the finish line on the field at PNC Park and helped raise money for Pirates Charities projects and programs.

BRADENTON AND PITTSBURGH GOLF EVENTS

Pirates Charities hosts two golf fundraising events each year; one in Bradenton, FL, and the second in Pittsburgh. The 2013 Spring Training Golf Classic benefited youth recreation programs in Bradenton, FL, and raised more than $44,000.

The Pirates Charities 8th Annual Golf Classic, presented by Allegheny Health Network, took place on July 11 at Fox Chapel Golf Club. President Frank Coonelly and Allegheny General Hospital Orthopaedic Chair Dr. Patrick DeMeo co-chaired the event. More than 100 participants had the chance to mingle with Pirates celebrities including Gerrit Cole and Jason Grilli. Over $162,000 was raised at this event.

ANNUAL SPORTING CLAYS INVITATIONAL

Pirates players, coaches, broadcasters and Front Office executives participated in the annual Pirates Charities Sporting Clays Invitational, which took place on June 10, 2013 at 7 Springs Mountain Resort. The event is chaired by Bob Nutting. More than 25 Pirates celebrities joined 120 participants for an enjoyable day of shooting and camaraderie at beautiful 7 Springs.

ROOTS SPORTS AUCTION

The 6th annual Pirates Charities On ROOT Sports Auction raised $414,000 to benefit Pirates Charities and local Miracle League programs. During the July 9 Pirates/A's game, Pirates wives and Front Office personnel joined ROOT Sports for this exciting televised auction. Fans had the opportunity to bid on great Pirates premium auction items, as well as purchase "VIP bags" filled with Pirates autographed items and merchandise.

50/50 RAFFLES

New for the 2013 season, Pirates Charities 50/50 Raffles took place during each Pirates home game. Fans could visit 50/50 kiosks or buy from individual ticket sellers for the chance to take home 50% of the total raised. The remaining 50% benefited Pirates Charities. Thanks to the generosity of fans. Pirates Charities 50/50 Raffles raised more than $1.2 million last season.

[COMMUNITY OUTREACH: PLAYER INVOLVEMENT]

CLINT HURDLE

Pirates Manager Clint Hurdle and his wife Karla support countless community efforts in Pittsburgh and throughout the country. For the third year, the Hurdles spearheaded the "Wins for Kids" program to raise money for a cause near and dear to their hearts — the Prader Willi Program at the Children's Institute of Pittsburgh. Wins for Kids asks Pirates fans and supporters to pledge a donation, or a dollar amount per Pirates win. Trib Total Media once again kicked off the donations with a contribution of $25,000, and thanks to the team's 94 wins — a total of $80,000 was raised in 2013.

CUTCH'S CREW

As the Pirates nominee for MLB's Roberto Clemente Award, Andrew McCutchen proved he's an MVP off the field as well. Among his many community activities, he is a local spokesman for Habitat for Humanity, helping to build houses for those in need and hosting an off-season event to raise money for the group. He also supported the Homewood YMCA last summer by sponsoring a group of teens to help them attend a worldwide Y youth conference in Prague. Members of "Cutch's Crew," a Pittsburgh Marathon Team that raises funds for Pirates Charities, partnered with Andrew on these initiatives.

MORTON'S MILITARY SUPPORT

Charlie and Cindy Morton continued their ongoing support of military organizations by teaming up with Pirates Charities to make a "Very Important Pirate" (VIP) Party even more special. Bob Nutting hosted military families from Operation Troop Appreciation and the Wounded Warrior Project in September, 2013 through the Pirates Charities VIP Party Program. Charlie and Cindy visited with the VIP guests and contributed $30,000 to be shared between the two groups.

PIRATES COMMUNITY COMMITMENT PROGRAM

The Pirates Community Commitment Program (PCCP) is an organization-wide community service program for Pirates Minor League Players that promotes community service and awareness, and provides benefit to the community, the individual player and the Pirates organization. Every minor league player is required to complete a minimum of 10 hours of community service during their playing season. To kick off the 2013 PCCP effort, guest speaker Neil Alexander addressed Pirates players in Spring Training on behalf of his organization, LiveLikeLou. Neil was diagnosed with ALS in 2011 and he and his wife, Suzanne, formed LiveLikeLou to raise funds and awareness for ALS. Neil encouraged the players to be active in the community and to "give back" as he and his family are doing.

Near the conclusion of each team's regular season, each of the Pirates minor league teams selects one player from their organization to receive the "Pirates Community Commitment Award." Honorees travel to Pittsburgh, where they are recognized in a special pregame, on-field ceremony held on Clemente Day.

CHUCK TANNER AWARD

In memory of longtime Pirates manager Chuck Tanner, the "We Are Family" Fund has been established through Pirates Charities. During Spring Training, a member of the Pirates minor league family is honored with the Chuck Tanner Award that is given to the staff person who best exemplifies Chuck's optimism, dedication and commitment to the game of baseball. The 2013 Chuck Tanner honoree was Pirates GCL Pitching Coach Miguel Bonilla.

[COMMUNITY OUTREACH: GREEN INITIATIVES]

"LET'S GO BUCS, LET'S GO GREEN" CAMPAIGN

The Pirates are committed to sustainable practices by focusing on three key elements—recycling, conservation and awareness. The Pirates "Let's Go Bucs. Let's Go Green" program integrates greening initiatives, sustainable business practices and educational outreach throughout the Pirates organization and the PNC Park facility.

The Pirates were recognized as National League Central Division Champions for Major League Baseball's 2013 Green Glove Award. This award recognizes top teams in each division and league for having the highest recycling rates among MLB clubs.

In addition to the "Let's Go Bucs. Let's Go Green" initiative, the Pirates have taken significant steps to reduce the ballpark's energy consumption and were one of the first MLB teams to incorporate a composting program.

In partnership with concessionaires ARAMARK and Levy, the Pittsburgh Pirates support Rock and Wrap it Up! Inc. by recovering prepared but untouched food from PNC Park throughout the baseball season. The collected food is donated to the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank. A total of 2,528 pounds of food were recovered during the 2013 season, which equates to 2,107 meals.

RALPH KINER

RALPH KINER, the power-hitting star of the Pittsburgh Pirates during the late 1940s and early 1950s, died of natural causes at his home in Rancho Mirage, CA, on February 6, 2014 at the age of 91. However, his impact on the franchise and the game of baseball will endure in the years to come.

Kiner immediately became a fan favorite at Forbes Field when he joined the Pirates in 1946, and the reason was pretty simple. He hit the ball over the fence -- way over the fence -- with regularity. Kiner won or shared the National League home run title in each of his seven full seasons with Pittsburgh, a streak that remains unmatched in either league. The 6'2" and 195-pound outfielder smacked a club record 54 homers in 1949, and he still ranks second on Pittsburgh's all-time home run list with 301, behind only Willie Stargell (475).

The Pirates weren't a very good team during Kiner's era. In fact, they only had a winning record once while he was with the team, and that was in 1948, when they finished fourth in the league at 83-71. In his other six seasons with Pittsburgh, the ballclub suffered an average of 94 losses.

As a tribute to their beloved star, the Pirates retired Kiner's number 4 during ceremonies that took place prior to a game at Three Rivers Stadium during the 1987 season. He is one of only nine men in the history of the franchise to be honored in that manner (pg 227).

Although Kiner was famous for the long ball, he did more than just hit home runs. He batted above the .300-mark three times and drove in more than 100 runs five times during his tenure with the Pirates. His time in Pittsburgh ended when he was traded to the Chicago Cubs as part of a blockbuster 10-player deal in June of 1953.

Kiner spent two seasons in a Cubs uniform and one with the Cleveland Indians before a back ailment prematurely ended his career. However, his years with the Pirates always remained dear to him.

"I loved Pittsburgh and it was very disappointing to be traded away by (General Manager) Branch Rickey," Kiner said. "Even though I didn't mind going to Chicago, I missed Pittsburgh. I was treated so well here that you had to miss it. The fans were wonderful."

Kiner, who was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1975, made the All-Star team five times as a member of the Pirates. Besides leading the league in home runs for seven straight years, his other feats involving round trippers included: hitting two or more in a single game 10 times during the 1947 season, hitting 31 at Forbes Field alone in 1948, hitting 101 in a two-year span (1949-1950), and hitting 16 in one month -- in September of 1949.

Clint Hurdle was named manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates on November 15, 2010, thus becoming the 39th manager in the organization's history. The 2014 season will mark his 40th overall in professional baseball.

Hurdle was named the 2013 National League Manager-of-the-Year by the BBWAA after leading the Pirates to a 94-68 record and their first postseason berth since 1992. He received 25 first-place votes and was listed second on the other five ballots, as well as being the only manager in either league named on all 30 ballots. Hurdle is just the second Pittsburgh manager to win the award, joining Jim Leyland, who won in 1990 and 1992.

Hurdle also captured Manager-of-the-Year honors from The Sporting News in 2013, joining Billy Meyer (1948), Danny Murtaugh (1960, 1970) and Jim Leyland (1988, 1990, 1992) as past winners in club history.

ird year, the Hurdles spearhe for Kids" program to raise money for the Prader Willi Program at the Children's Institute of Pittsburgh.

In his first three seasons as the Bucco skipper, Hurdle has posted a 245-241 record. The 245 victories are the most by a Pittsburgh manager in his first three full seasons since Chuck Tanner won 282 games from 1977-79. Hurdle had his 2013 squad in sole possession of first place for 25 days from July 30-August 23 and the team occupied first or second place in the Central Division every day since June 21.

Hurdle, who enters the 2014 season ranked sixth in wins among active managers, won his 700th career game on April 28, 2013.

Hurdle spent the 2010 season as the Hitting Coach of the American League champion Texas Rangers, a club that led the Major Leagues with a .276 batting average during the regular season - paced by A.L. MVP Josh Hamilton (.359 average, 32 home runs and 100 RBI) and Vladimir Guerrero (.300 average, 29 home runs and 115 RBI).

Prior to joining the Texas coaching staff on November 5, 2009, Hurdle spent over 15 years in the Colorado organization, serving as a minor league hitting coordinator, Major League hitting coach and manager at the big league level. He compiled a 543-625 record while serving the Rockies as manager from April 26, 2002, until he was relieved of his duties on May 29, 2009. Clint has the most wins of any manager in Colorado team history, winning his 500th career game on August 29, 2008 at Los Angeles.

In 2007, Hurdle led the Rockies to the World Series as the club captured its first National League pennant in franchise history. The 2007 club, which won 11 straight games in September, won 21 of its 22 games leading up to the World Series, where Boston pulled off a four-game sweep. During the 2007 post season, the Rockies swept the Phillies in the Division Series and Arizona in the Championship Series before falling to the Red Sox in the Fall Classic.

For his efforts in 2007, Hurdle received four first-place votes and finished third in the voting for N.L. Manager-of-the-Year. His '07 squad also compiled the highest single-season fielding pct. in Major League history (.989), a mark that still stands. Clint also served as manager of the National League in the 2008 All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium, the longest game (time, innings) in All-Star history (the N.L.

lost 4-3 in 15 innings in a game that lasted 4:50). Hurdle was also a coach for the N.L. staff during the 2004 All-Star Game in Houston.

Hurdle's managerial career at the big league level began with a 4-1 victory over the Phillies at Coors Field on April 26, 2002. He replaced Buddy Bell as Colorado's skipper that day and went 6-0 in his first six games - tied for the sixth-best winning streak by a manager following a mid-season managerial change in Major League history (Joe Morgan holds the record as his Red Sox won their first 12 games in 1988).

In his five-plus years tutoring Colorado's hitters, the club compiled the N.L.'s top two averages in 70 years (.294 in 2000 and .292 in 2001) and the league's most base hits since 1930 (1,664 in 2000). In 2001 alone, the Rockies established a Major League record for total bases (2,748) and the N.L. mark for extra-base hits (598). Hurdle, who doubled as the club's First Base Coach from 1997-98, remained on the coaching staff under three different Colorado managers; Don Baylor, Jim Leyland and Buddy Bell. Prior to becoming Hitting Coach in 1997, Clint served the Rockies as their minor league hitting instructor from 1994-96.

Before he joined the Colorado organization, Hurdle managed in the New York Mets system for six seasons (1988-1993) and compiled a 412-418 record. In his first season as a manager, and in St. Lucie's first year of existence, he led the club to a second-half division title and the Florida State League championship. Hurdle also took his 1989 St. Lucie club and the 1990 Jackson team to the post season, losing in the first round of the playoffs each year. After managing Williamsport in the Eastern League in 1991, Clint wrapped up his minor league managerial career with two seasons at the Triple-A level with Tidewater in 1992 and Norfolk in 1993.

Primarily an outfielder during his playing days, Hurdle was selected by Kansas City in the first round (9th player overall) of the 1975 June draft. After three full seasons in the minor leagues, which included American Association Rookie-of-the-Year and All-Star Game MVP honors while playing with Omaha in 1977, Clint made his Major League debut at the age of 20 with the Royals on September 18, 1977, and hit a two-run homer off Seattle's Glenn Abbott in his second at bat.

Hurdle played parts of 10 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Royals (1977-1981), Reds (1982), Mets (1983, 1985, 1987) and Cardinals (1986) and compiled a .259 average, 81 doubles, 12 triples, 32 home runs and 193 RBI in 515 career games. He appeared in the post season twice with Kansas City, going 3-for-8 with an RBI in four games against the Yankees in the 1978 A.LC.S., and advancing as far as the World Series in 1980, only to lose in four games to the Phillies.

Hurdle made his Major League debut at the age of 20 with the Royals on September 18, 1977.

(1987), Clint appeared in 97 games with Triple-A Tidewater and went 1-for-3 in three games with the Mets. In his big league career, he made 240 appearances in right field, 96 in left field, 92 at first base, 22 at catcher and 15 at third base. Hurdle, who hit the final home run in Minnesota's historical Metropolitan Stadium on 9/30/81, hit his final big league homer on 9/9/86 at Three Rivers Stadium - a solo shot off Pittsburgh's Rick Reuschel.

BENCH COACH

AGE: 50

BORN: 1/15/64 in Weatherford, OK RESIDES: League City, TX APPOINTED: 11/24/10
POSITION PLAYED: C/1B

Jeff Banister was officially named the Bench Coach of the Pirates on 11/24/10. He served the Major League club in that same capacity in 2010 from August 8 thru the end of the season.

Now in his 29th season with the Pittsburgh organization, Banister spent eight years as the club's Minor League Field Coordinator after working the previous four years (1999-2002) as the Field Coordinator at the big league level.

Originally selected by the Pirates in the 25th round of the 1986 June free agent draft, Jeff began his professional playing career with Watertown. He compiled a .247 batting average, 37 home runs and 204 RBI in 515 minor league games. Banister made his Major League debut and only big league appearance as a pinch hitter with the Pirates on 7/23/91. He owns a career Major League batting average of 1.000, having singled off Atlanta's Dan Petry at Three Rivers Stadium in his only big league at bat. Jeff went on to miss the entire 1992 season due to right elbow surgery.

Banister served as a player/coach with Carolina (AA) in 1993 before beginning his managerial career with Welland in the New York-Penn League in 1994. He moved on to manage Augusta (A) in 1995 and Lynchburg (A) for 1996 and the first half of the 1997 campaign. His Augusta club captured the 1995 South Atlantic League championship. Jeff replaced Marc Hill as manager at Carolina for the remainder of the 1997 season and spent the entire 1998 campaign at the off made a single appearance for the Pirates in 1991 and has a 1,000 Major League BA Mudcats helm. In his five seasons as a minor league manager, Banny compiled a 299-330 (.475) record. He also managed in the Hawaiian Winter League in 1995 and 1996; his team advanced to the playoffs each season, with his Honolulu club winning the championship in 1995. In 2004, Jeff managed Lynchburg for two weeks during a managerial change.

Banister's most recent stint as a manager came in the Fall of 2009 as he managed the Scottsdale Scorpions to a 15-16 record and a second place finish during the Arizona Fall League.

PERSONAL: Jeffrey Todd Banister...Wife's name is Karen...Has two children; daughter Alexandra (4/30/95) and son Jacob (4/5/02)... Is a 1982 graduate of LaMarque (TX) High School, where he played baseball, football and golf...Was a quarterback and linebacker on the football team...Has battled bone cancer and osteomyelitis (an infection of the bone or bone marrow) throughout his professional career, in addition to having seven operations on his left ankle and leg in 1980...Played for Baytown (TX) Junior College, where he had his vertebrae crushed in a home-plate collision that left him temporarily paralyzed from the neck down...Attended the University of Houston in 1985-86... Shared the NBC Sportsman-of-the-Week award with Dennis Martinez (who threw a perfect game for the Expos) after making his big league debut in 1991...Was the first recipient of the Gilda Radner Courage Award (1991-92)...Received the "Pride of the Pirates" award in 2011, recognizing a member of the Pirates family who has demonstrated the qualities of sportsmanship, dedication and outstanding character during a lifetime of service...Has participated in the last four team caravans and PirateFest events.

POSITION PLAYED: INF

Jeff Branson officially joined the Major League coaching staff on December 13, 2012. He was promoted to Hitting Coach for the 2014 campaign this past offseason after working as the assistant hitting coach under Jay Bell in 2013.

Branson is in his 12th season with the Pittsburgh organization and his 25th in professional baseball. Prior to joining the big league staff, he spent a total of four seasons (2009-2012) with the Pirates Triple-A affiliate in Indianapolis.

Following a 14-year playing career, Branson joined the Pittsburgh organization in 2003 as the Hitting Coach with Williamsport in the New York-Penn League. He then managed the Williamsport club in 2004 before serving as manager with Hickory (2005-06) and Lynchburg (2007-08). In his five seasons as a minor league manager, Branson posted a 269-350 (.435) record.

Jeff played six of his nine Major League seasons with Cincinnati

An infielder during his playing days, Branson was selected by Cincinnati in the second round of the 1988 First-Year Player Draft and made his professional debut with Cedar Rapids in 1989. He made his Major League debut with the Reds on April 12, 1992 at Houston and collected his first hit in his fourth big league game on May 2, 1992 vs. Chicago - a double off Mike Morgan as a pinch hitter. Jeff's first Major League home run came on June 12, 1993; a two-run shot off John Smoltz at Fulton County Stadium in Atlanta.

Branson played a total of nine seasons in the big leagues and produced a .246 batting average (383-for-1555), 34 home runs and 156 RBI in 694 games. He appeared in the National League Championship Series with the Reds in 1995 and stole home as part of a double-steal with Lenny Harris in Game Two vs. Atlanta - the first steal of home in N.L.C.S. history.

The Cleveland Indians acquired Branson and left-handed pitcher John Smiley from the Reds in a deal for four players on July 31, 1997, and he played with the Indians in the 1997 World Series. Jeff played his final Major League game with the Dodgers on October 6, 2001, at San Francisco and finished his playing career with Triple-A Las Vegas in 2002.

PERSONAL: Jeffery Glenn Branson...Wife's name is Chastity...Has three children; sons Shelton (9/3/97) and Landon (6/2/06) and daughter Maclai (1/19/00)...Is a 1985 graduate of Southern Choctaw High School in Silas, AL, where he played baseball, basketball and football...Attended Livingston (AL) University and was named to the Converse Division II All-American Team as a junior in 1988...Was a member of the 1988 United States baseball team that won a Gold Medal at the Olympic Games in Seoul, Korea.

Dave Jauss is in his second season as a Major League Coach, having joined Manager Clint Hurdle's staff on October 31, 2012. He spent the final month of the 2012 regular season with the big league club and will serve the team as its "eye in the sky," providing thoughts and recommendations to Clint Hurdle and the Major League coaching staff on individual players as well as the entire club.

Jauss spent the 2012 season - his first with the Pittsburgh organization and his 25th in professional baseball - as a Special Assistant to General Manager Neal Huntington, assisting in Player Acquisition with an emphasis on Advance Scouting of National League clubs. He also managed the Estrellas club from San Pedro in the Dominican Republic Winter League during the 2012 off season.

In 2011, Jauss worked with the New York Mets as their Coordinator of Staff Development. He also served the Mets as their Major League Bench Coach in 2010 after working in the same capacity under manager Dave Trembley in Baltimore (2008-09) and under manager Grady Little with the Los Angeles Dodgers (2006-07).

Prior to joining the Dodgers in 2006, Jauss spent 10 seasons working as a coach, scout and administrator in the Boston organization from 1996-2005. He spent the 1995 campaign as Baltimore's coordinator of instruction before being hired by the Red Sox, where he worked as the minor league field coordinator for two years (2000-2001). His last three seasons with Boston (2003-05) were spent in the role of a Major League Advance Scout.

Jauss' start in professional baseball came in 1988, when he managed Montreal's Gulf Coast League team. He spent a total of three seasons as a manager in the Expos' farm system (1988, 1992, 1994), compiled a 188-151 (.555) record and was named Eastern League Manager-of-the-Year after guiding Harrisburg to an 88-51 record and first-place finish in 1994.

Jauss also spent six years as a college head coach before moving to pro ball. He coached at Westfield (MA) State College from 1982-84 and at Atlantic Christian College in Wilson, NC from 1985-87. He also managed in the New Brunswick Canadian Senior League in 1981-82 and coached for two seasons in the NCAA-sanctioned Cape Cod League with Hyannis in 1983 and 1984.

In addition to the 2012 offseason, Dave managed Licey during the 2009 Dominican Winter League. He also managed Licey three other times (1998-99, 2002) and spent three years (1993-95) as a coach with Caracas in the Venezuelan Winter League.

PERSONAL: David Patrick Jauss...Wife's name is Billie...Has three sons; DJ (9/5/90), Charley (6/24/92) and Will (8/2/96)...Is a 1975 graduate of New Trier East High School in Winnetka, IL, where he played baseball and basketball... Earned a B.A. degree in Psychology from Amherst (MA) College and a Master's Degree in Sports Management from the University of Massachusetts...Captained the baseball and basketball teams while playing at Amherst...His father, Bill, was a renowned sportswriter for the Chicago Tribune, and was elected into the U.S. Basketball Writers Association Hall-of-Fame upon his retirement in 2003.

Nick Levva joined Manager Clint Hurdle's staff as the Third Base Coach on November 24, 2010. In addition to his role as the Third Base Coach, he will serve as the Club's Infield Coach.

The 2014 season marks Levva's 38th in professional baseball and his 20th at the Major League level. He spent the 2010 season as the Bench Coach for the Toronto Blue Jays - under Manager Cito Gaston - after working the previous two seasons as Toronto's Third Base Coach.

An infielder during his playing days, Leyva was selected by St. Louis in the 24th round of the 1975 First-Year Player Draft and began his professional career with Class-A Sarasota that summer. After a three-year playing career, which concluded with a stint at Double-A Arkansas in 1977, Leyva began his managerial/coaching career as a manager in the St. Louis farm system with Johnson City in 1977.

In his first six seasons managing in the minor leagues (1978-1983), Levva posted 350-340 (.507) record and was named the Texas League Manager-of-the-Year in 1983 after guiding Arkansas to a 69-67 record and second-half division title.

Nick served the Cardinals as their First Base Coach at the big league level for two years (1984-85) before moving across the diamond to the third base coaching box for three years. In addition, he managed in the Puerto Rican Winter League for three years, winning the Championship and being named Manager-of-the-Year with Mayaguez in 1986.

After his five seasons as a coach with the Cardinals, the Philadelphia Phillies named Leyva their Manager on October 3, 1988. At 37 years of age at the time, he was the youngest skipper of the Phillies since 1960 (Gene Mauch - 34). Leyva guided the Phillies to a 77-85 record in his second year at the helm, showing a 10-game improvement from his rookie campaign. Philadelphia, however, let Leyva go on April 24, 1991, after he got off to a 4-9 start that season.

Leyva joined the Toronto organization for the first time in 1992 when he was hired to manage Triple-A Syracuse, a position he held for two seasons before serving the Blue Jays as their Third Base Coach from 1994-97. In that time, he also managed Lara in the Venezuelan Winter League in 1995 and 1996.

After working two years in private business. Nick spent seven seasons in the Chicago White Sox organization. He was a manager at the Triple-A level with Charlotte for two seasons prior to being named the Appalachian League Manager-of-the-Year in 2002 after guiding his Bristol club to a 43-25 record and a league title. He also won a Puerto Rican League championship with Mayaguez in 2002, one year after leading Lara to the Venezuelan Winter League championship.

For two years (2003-04), Leyva served the White Sox as their Minor League Infield Instructor before returning to the managerial post with Charlotte in 2005 and Bristol in 2006.

Leyva spent the 2007 season as the Third Base Coach with the Milwaukee Brewers. His last stint as a manager came in 2008 when he spent the first three months in the Mets farm system with Kingsport in the Appalachian League. He guided the K-Mets to a 1-2 record before being named Toronto's Third Base Coach on June 20 that season.

In his 14 seasons as a minor league manager, Leyva has posted a 714-777 (.479) record. He also captured three Winter League Championships while managing in Puerto Rico and Venezuela for seven seasons.

PERSONAL: Nicholas Tomas Leyva ("LAY-vah")...Wife's name is Chelé...Has one son; Casey (10/22/83)...Is a 1971 graduate of Chaffey High School in Ontario, CA...Received degrees in Diversified Major and Spanish from LaVerne (CA) College in 1975...Also played baseball at LaVerne College and was a 1975 NAIA All-American... Is a member of the Sports Hall-of-Fame at LaVerne College.

Jeff Livesey joined the Major League coaching staff on November 18, 2013. In his role, he will act primarily as the assistant hitting coach, working with Jeff Branson to implement the club's hitting program.

Now in his 12th season with the Pittsburgh organization, Livesey spent the last three years as the Minor League Hitting Coordinator. He returned to the Pirates in 2011 after spending the previous five years as a coach in Japan; was the Bench Coach for the Hiroshima Carp for four years and the Bench Coach for the Rakuten Eagles for one year.

Livesey's tenure with the Pirates organization began in 1998 when he served as the Hitting Coach with Lynchburg in the Carolina League. He also worked in the same capacity with Double-A Altoona (1999-2000), Triple-A Nashville (2001, 2004) and again with Lynchburg (2002-2003), where he watched Hillcat hitters lead the Carolina League in hitting and home runs each year.

In 2005 Jeff was the manager for the Gulf Coast League Pirates, where he led the Baby Bucs to a 28-26 record and a second-place finish in his only season as a minor league skipper.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Livesey spent two seasons (1996-1997) as the Hitting Coach for Montreal's Double-A affiliate in Harrisburg while the Senators captured the Eastern League championship each year.

Selected by New York (AL) in the 13th round of the 1988 June free agent draft, Livesey was a catcher in the Yankees system for eight years, hitting .217 (373-for-1090) with 16 home runs and 102 RBI in 373 career games; he also made three appearances at first base, two in the outfield and one at third base. Jeff retired in 1995 after spending the whole year at Columbus (AAA).

Euclides Rojas is in his fourth season as the Bullpen Coach, having joined the Major League Coaching Staff on November 24, 2010. He served the Boston Red Sox in the same capacity for two seasons (2003-04) and also spent 12 days in 1999 as the Florida Marlins Bullpen Coach.

Rojas spent six years as Pittsburgh's Latin American Field Coordinator, a position he held since 2005. He also worked for the Pirates as a roving minor league instructor in 2002 with an emphasis on the club's Latin American program.

Prior to joining the Pirates in January of 2002, Rojas spent five seasons as a coach in the Florida Marlins minor league system. He began his coaching career in the Gulf Coast League the same day he was released as a player by the Marlins on June 2, 1996.

After three more seasons (1997-99) with the GCL Marlins, Euky spent the 2000 season as the Pitching Coach for the Brevard County Manatees and was named the Florida organization's winner of the Carl Barger Player Development Person-of-the-Year award. His staff that season included A.J. Burnett, Dan Miceli, Brad Penny and Claudio Vargas, who won 10 games and was named to the Florida State League All-Star team.

A right-handed pitcher, Rojas pitched in the Marlins farm system in 1995 and retired as a player on June 2, 1996. He was also a member of the Cuban National Team from 1982-1994 and ranks as the all-time leader in Cuban baseball with 342 career relief appearances and 90 saves. His playing career also consisted of pitching on Olympic, World and Pan American championship teams.

Rojas served as a coach with Magallanes during the 2011-12 Venezuelan Winter League (Carlos Garcia was the manager).

2013 REVIEW

11/24/10

Ray Searage is in his fourth full season as the Pirates Pitching Coach. He joined the Major League staff on October 17, 2009 and was named interim Pitching Coach on August 8, 2010 after Joe Kerrigan was relieved of his duties. Ray was officially named Pitching Coach on November 24.

The 2014 season marks Searage's 37th in professional baseball and his 12th with the Pittsburgh organization. In 2013, the Pirates pitching staff allowed the second-fewest runs (577) in all of Major League Baseball the fewest runs allowed by the Pirates in a non-strike season since the 1984 team gave up just 567 in 162 games. The 3.26 team ERA in 2013 ranked third in the Majors and was the lowest mark for a Pirates team since the 1984 squad led the league with a 3.11 ERA.

Searage spent seven seasons as a Pitching Coach at various levels within the Pirates minor league system, most recently with Triple-A Indianapolis in 2008-2009. He also served in the same capacity with Double-A Altoona (2006-07), Class-A Hickory (2005) and Rookie-League Williamsport (2003-2004). During his tenure with the Bucs, he also served as a coach during the Arizona Fall League in 2006 and again in 2008. In addition, he spent the 2009 off-season working as the Pitching Coach for Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League and did so again in 2010 until he was named Pitching Coach of the Bucs.

ge was a member of the Dodgers in 1989-90

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Ray spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons as the Florida Marlins Minor League Pitching Coordinator. He also served as Pitching Coach with Orlando (Devil Rays' AA) for three years prior to joining the Marlins. Searage began his coaching career in the St. Louis Cardinals minor league system, working as a Pitching Coach with Madison (1994), Peoria (1995-1996) and Prince William (1997).

Originally selected by St. Louis in the 22nd round of the 1976 June draft, Searage made his Major League debut with the New York Mets on 6/11/81. Ray picked up his first Major League win at Wrigley Field in Chicago while making his third career appearance on 8/11/81; in the same game he singled off Dick Tidrow in his first big league plate appearance. Later in the 1981 season, he earned his first save after nailing down a 5-3 Mets victory over the Pirates at Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh on September 9.

Searage pitched a total of seven big league seasons with the Mets (1981), Brewers (1984-86), White Sox (1986-87) and Dodgers (1989-90) and compiled an 11-13 record, 11 saves and a 3.50 ERA in 254 games (all in relief). He finished his professional pitching career with Edmonton (Angels' AAA) in 1992.

PERSONAL: Raymond Mark Searage...Wife's name is Vicki...Has three sons; Raymond II (10/16/80), Ryan (11/23/82) and Robbie (4/25/88)...Is a 1973 graduate of Deer Park High School on Long Island, NY...Played baseball, basketball and ran cross country while in high school...Also played baseball at West Liberty State College in West Virginia.

IRICK SOFIELD FIRST BASE COACH AGE: 57 BORN: 12/16/56 in Cheyenne, WY RESIDES: Bluffton, SC APPOINTED: 10/31/12 POSITION PLAYED: OF

Rick Sofield is in his second season as Pittsburgh's First Base Coach, having been named to Clint Hurdle's coaching staff on October 31, 2012. He also oversees the club's baserunning and outfield efforts at the Major League level.

Sofield returned to the Pirates in 2012 for his second stint with the organization and managed West Virginia to a 61-78 record in the South Atlantic League. He served the club as its Minor League Field Coordinator in 2002.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Rick spent four years as the Head Coach at the University of South Carolina Beaufort. He also spent time at the collegiate level as the head baseball coach at the University of Utah for eight years (1987-1994) and with his alma mater. South Carolina University for three years as an assistant coach (1984-86).

Including his managerial stint with West Virginia in 2012, Sofield has spent six seasons as a manager in the minor leagues, compiling a 391-392 (.499) record. He managed in the Montreal farm system from 1995-97, guiding Harrisburg to the Eastern League championship in 1997. For his effort that season, he was the recipient of the John McHale award, an honor bestowed upon the Expos' top performer in the area of player development.

Sofield also spent two seasons (1999-2000) as the Minor League Field Coordinator with the Dodgers after doing so with the Expos in 1998.

Sofield played three years in the Major Leagues with Minnesota from 1979-1981

A former number one pick of the Minnesota Twins in the 1975 June Draft (13th overall selection), Sofield spent three years as an outfielder in the Major Leagues with the Twins (1979-1981) and compiled a .243 average, nine home runs and 66 RBI in 207 games. He made his big league debut on 4/6/79 and singled off Matt Keough for his first Major League hit at Oakland on 4/7/79. The left-handed hitter spent the entire 1980 season with Minnesota and appeared in 131 games. He connected off Steve McCatty for his first Major League home run on 4/10/80 and also hit an inside-the-park homer that season on 7/11 at Seattle.

Sofield also played a total of 10 years in the minor leagues with the Twins and in the Texas organization, retiring as a player following the 1982 campaign. He played his last big league game on 10/4/81 and went 3-for-6 against the White Sox in Chicago.

PIRATES WHO HAVE HIT FOR THE CYCLE

Hitting for the cycle (a single, double, triple and home run in the same game) is a feat that has been accomplished 23 times by 20 different Pittsburgh players. Fred Clarke, Arky Vaughan and Wally Westlake achieved the feat two times each. It has been accomplished just six times by a Bucco since the 1951 season and just once (Jason Kendall at Three Rivers Stadium on May 19, 2000) in the city of Pittsburgh in the last 63 years.

BULLPEN CATCHER

HEBERTO ANDRADE

Heberto Andrade is in his 11th season as the Pirates Bullpen Catcher. His daily responsibilities include catching pitchers' bullpen sessions prior to games and warming up pitchers during the games. He also observes what pitchers are doing mechanically and has regular communication with the Bullpen Coach and Pitching Coach. Herbie also throws to the hitters during batting practice on a daily basis.

Andrade spent three years (1986-88) as a catcher in the Chicago Cubs farm system and also played professional baseball in Venezuela, Italy and Colombia before retiring as a player in 1996.

In addition to his duties with the Pirates, Heberto has spent the last 18 years as a coach and catching instructor during the Venezuelan Winter League.

He was one of the two catchers for the 2006 All-Star Game Home Run Derby, which was held at PNC Park in Pittsburgh on July 10. Herbie and his wife Maria reside in Venezuela and have three daughters; Maria Jesus (17), Maria Jose (16) and Maria Angel (15).

COORDINATOR

KEVIN ROACH

Kevin Roach is in his 13th season with the Pittsburgh Pirates, his 10th as the team's official video coordinator. In his role, Kevin is responsible for videotaping each Pittsburgh batter and pitcher during every game, as well as taping a majority of every opponent's games. The videos are then used by Manager Clint Hurdle, along with the coaching staff and players, to analyze strengths and weaknesses in the players performance. In addition, Kevin oversees the video operations for all minor league teams within the organization.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Roach spent five years as the video coordinator for the University of Pittsburgh Panthers basketball team. Kevin also served as an administrative assistant for the Cleveland State University men's basketball team for four years (1996-2000). While there, he coordinated the Cleveland State Benefit Golf Outing and was co-director of the Rollie Massimino Basketball Camp. Roach additionally worked with the Cleveland Browns media relations department and the Cleveland Indians video department. He also served as an administrative assistant for the Wichita State men's basketball team from 1995-1996 and the UNLV men's basketball team from 1992-1994.

A native of Syracuse, NY, Roach earned both his Master's in sport management and Bachelor's degree in communication from Cleveland State University. He also owns an Associate's degree in radio and television from Onondaga Community College. In addition, Keyin coached the Cleveland Basketball Club's AAU 15 & Under squad which advanced to the 1999 AAU National Tournament in Indianapolis.

Kevin and his wife Heather reside in Pittsburgh and have two daughters; Ella (6) and Lily (4), and one son; Brennan (8/3/13).

WYATT TOREGAS

Wyatt Toregas is in his second season as the organization's Video Advance Scout.

A catcher during his playing days, Toregas was a non-roster invitee with the Pirates during spring training in 2012 and spent that season as a player/coach with Triple-A Indianapolis, where he also coached first base and worked with catchers.

VIDEO ADVANCE SCOUT

Originally selected by Cleveland in the 24th round of the 2004 First-Year Player Draft. Toregas made his professional debut with Mahoning Valley in the New York-Penn League that summer. He was named to the 2006 Carolina League mid-season All-Star team after leading the circuit in hitting for most of the first half of the season (was leading the league with a .336 batting average and was second with a .418 on-base percentage when he was promoted to Double-A on 6/5).

Wyatt spent a majority of the 2009 season with Columbus (Indians' AAA) and was named to the International League All-Star team. He made his Major League debut with the Indians on 8/1/09 vs. Detroit and singled off Rick Porcello for his first big league hit. Toregas made a total of 19 appearances (17 starts) behind the plate with Cleveland in 2009 and had a career-high three RBI on 8/9 at Chicago (AL).

Toregas was one of the eight catchers used by the Pirates in 2011. He went hitless in four at bats with Pittsburgh that season, making two appearances behind the plate.

A native of Fairfax, VA, Toregas was a four-year letterman at South Lakes (VA) High School, where he hit .609 during his senior year. He also played three seasons at Virginia Tech and was an All-Big East first team selection his sophomore season in 2003 after hitting .319 with 10 home runs and 60 RBI in 56 games. He produced a .280 average, 14 doubles, four homers and 39 RBI in 53 games as a junior.

Wyatt and his wife Holly reside in Ashburn, VA, and have two children; son Alexander (4) and daughter Ava (1).

MEDICAL DIRECTOR

DR. PATRICK DEMEO

Dr. Patrick DeMeo serves as the Medical Director for the Pittsburgh Pirates, a position he has held since the 2002 season. He began his tenure as Sports Medicine consultant and coordinator of services provided by Allegheny General Hospital for the club during the summer of 2000.

DeMeo is currently the Chairman of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at Allegheny General Hospital as well as a member of the Board of Directors. In addition to his services in Pittsburgh, he serves as Assistant Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery for the Drexel University School of Medicine in Philadelphia.

He received his medical degree from Wayne State University in 1986 and served his internship and residencies at the Downstate Medical Center at the State University of New York. Dr. DeMeo, who is certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery, completed his orthopaedic residency at The Ohio State University and his Fellowship training in sports medicine at the Cleveland Clinic. He was also honored by Vectors as Pittsburgh's Physician-of-the-Year in 2002 and is the past President of Dapper Dan Charities in Pittsburgh.

In November of 2008, DeMeo and the Pirates athletic training staff received the Dick Martin Award, an honor bestowed upon the Best Medical Staff in baseball by Baseball Prospectus. The award is named after the long-time Twins trainer who helped set the standard of excellence that today's Athletic Trainers and doctors aspire to reach.

Dr. DeMeo and his wife, Anita, have two children; son PJ (19) and daughter Kaitlyn (17).

DR. EDWARD SNELL

Dr. Edward Snell is in his 15th season as the Pirates Team Physician, having joined the staff in 2000.

In addition to his work with the Bucs, Ed serves as the President for the Major League Baseball Team Physician Association and is a member of the PIAA Sports Medicine advisory board. He has also served as a medical consultant for a number of professional and amateur sports venues, including the Pittsburgh Penguins, the Pittsburgh Marathon, The Great Race, the NCAA tournament and the World Boxing Council. He was recognized as the Physician of the Year in 2009 by the PATS.

Snell is currently a senior attending staff physician with Allegheny Orthopaedic Associates. He is also a director of the Sports Medicine Fellowship Program at Allegheny General Hospital in Pittsburgh and serves as an Assistant Professor of Orthopaedics at Drexel University school of Medicine in Philadelphia.

CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

SCOTT BONNETT

Scott "Bones" Bonnett joined the Pittsburgh organization on February 1, 2000. He is in his sixth season as the Clubhouse Manager after spending nine years as the Assistant Equipment Manager.

Bonnett is responsible for ordering all equipment for the Major League club in addition to maintaining a comfortable atmosphere for the players and staff in the Pirates clubhouse at PNC Park. He also oversees the transfer and distribution of personal luggage and all baseball equipment during team travel. Scott also travels to Bradenton, FL, to assist the club during mini-camp and fantasy camp in January.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Scott worked as an attendant in the visiting baseball clubhouse at Cinergy Field, the previous home of the Cincinnati Reds, for nine years (1991-1999). He also served the Cincinnati organization as a batboy for three seasons (1988-1990). Scott has also spent time with the Pirates the past 12 years during the club's spring training stay in Bradenton, Florida.

The 43-year-old Bonnett is a native of Cincinnati, OH, and is a graduate of Lakota High School. He also attended the University of Cincinnati. Scott resides in Pittsburgh and has one son; Sawyer James (8). In addition to being a supporter of the Cincinnati Bengals, Bones is an avid hockey fan with major loyalties toward the Detroit Red Wings.

KEVIN CONRAD

Kevin Conrad is in his 17th season as the visiting clubhouse manager, having been hired in January of 1998. In that role, he is responsible for maintaining a comfortable atmosphere for players and staff in the visiting baseball clubhouse at PNC Park in addition to assisting Equipment Manager Scott Bonnett in day-to-day clubhouse operations. In 2006, Kevin served as the American League clubhouse manager for the Major League Baseball All-Star Game at PNC Park.

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Conrad served as an assistant in the Philadelphia Phillies visiting clubhouse for six seasons. He also currently serves as the visiting clubhouse manager at McKechnie Field during spring training and has also assisted during the Pirates stay in Bradenton, Florida, since 1995.

The 47-year-old native of Rahway, NJ, is a 1985 graduate of Roselle (NJ) Catholic High School and is a big fan of the New York Giants football team, who captured the Super Bowl championship as recently as 2012.

KIERE BULLS

Kiere Bulls is in his sixth season as the Assistant Equipment Manager. In his role, he is responsible for helping to maintain a comfortable atmosphere for players and staff in the Pirates clubhouse in addition to assisting Home Clubhouse Manager Scott Bonnett in day-to-day operations.

ASSISTANT CLUBHOUSE MANAGER Bulls worked part-time in the Pirates clubhouse from August 1, 1998 thru the 2008 season while also working as a correctional officer at the Allegheny County Jail from March 29, 2004 thru February 2009. In addition to handling all the duties while taking an occasional road trip with the team during the regular season, Kiere has also assisted Bonnett the last five years during the club's stay in Bradenton, Florida, during spring training.

The 31-year-old Bulls is a 2000 graduate of Langley High School in Pittsburgh, and resides in Bellevue. He has two children; daughter London (10) and son Keyshawn (7). Bulls is also a fan of the Jacksonville Jaguars football team.

[DID YOU KNOW...]

The Pittsburgh bullpen established a single-season club record with 55 saves in 2013 - the previous high was 52 by the 1979 World Champs. Among all National League teams in 2013, the Bucco relievers finished the season ranked first in saves, second in ERA (2.85), third in opponent's batting average against (.229) and sixth in strikeouts (452). Overall, the Pirates pitching staff allowed the second-fewest runs (577) in all of Major League Baseball in 2013; the fewest runs allowed by the Pirates in a non-strike season since the 1984 team gave up just 567 in 162 games while posting a league-leading 3.11 ERA.

LDID YOU KNOW...J

That Pedro Alvarez became the first player in Major League history to drive in at least one run in each of the first six postseason games of his career (beginning with Pittsburgh's Wild Card Playoff Game against the Reds on 10/1/13). Alvarez is the first player ever to drive in runs in each game of a Division Series that went the distance and his sixgame RBI streak in the postseason is the second-longest in Pirates history; one shy of the mark of seven straight games with at least on RBI set by Clyde Barnhart, spanning the 1925 and 1927 World Series.

[PITTSBURGH PIRATES TEAM HISTORY]

Now in their 128th National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenys brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenys were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

following year.

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenys reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenys defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenys' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League — the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But in 1891 Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's and their American Association brethren immediately accused Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates. In the largest player transaction in Pirates history, the Hall-of-Fame owner brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell — plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World championship in 1909.

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Pilgrims, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three.

The Pirates finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers — Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions — Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30 that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition

EXPOSITION PARK, 1905

Park — which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium — their home. Described as the "Hialeah of Ballparks" when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments.

Pittsburgh sank to the league's second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920's — with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey — Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

The Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, bounced back to win the final three games and the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter "Big Train" Johnson in Game Seven.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a club rookie record .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed "Big Poison" — batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333 career batting average. Lloyd — who was tagged "Little Poison" — hit .300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against New York's famed "Murderer's Row" with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

RALPH KINER

The Waners were consistently among baseball's premier hitters during the 1930's with Paul amassing more hits (1,959)

during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era's best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirates uniform (1946-52) — which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between May 19th and May 28th (that mark was matched by Don Mattingly in 1987 and Ken Griffey Jr. in 1993). Three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he retired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. The same year, ElRoy Face won 17 straight games in relief.

Though the Pirates failed to finish higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put into place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including 2001 Hall-of-Fame inductee Bill Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virdon, Face and Hall-of-Fame right fielder Roberto Clemente.

EVELOPMENT

In 1956, Pirate owner John Galbreath hired Joe L. Brown as manager. With the club languishing in last place at 36-67 midway through the 1957 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to field manager. Within three seasons, the Bucs were again champions of the National League and again matched against the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two. Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth - thanks to Hal Smith's threerun homer in the eighth - but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the score. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in Game Six of the 1993 Fall Classic.

During the 1960's, Clemente established himself among the game's elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1966.

The changing of the decade also brought along a change to the home ballpark of the Pirates. After playing in cavernous Forbes Field since June 30, 1909, the Bucs began play at a multi-purpose stadium located at the confluence of Pittsburgh's three rivers. The aptly named Three Rivers Stadium played host to its first game on July 16, 1970, with the Pirates losing a 3-2 decision to the Reds.

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams. In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In the first 25 years of divisional play, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club. The Pirates put together a 2.100-1.878 record during that period (.528 winning %).

The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente, who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award.

In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors - as he did during the regular season - with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading home run hitter of the 1970's (296). While the Pirates brought two world championships back to Pittsburgh during the 1970s, the Pittsburgh Steelers also came to prominence. The Steelers won four Super Bowls during the 70s, which, coupled with the Pirates success, helped garner Pittsburgh the "City of Champions" label.

On October 2, 1985, the Galbreath family and Warner Communications sold the club to Pittsburgh Associates: a group of private investors who were committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh Associates was made up of 10 investors representing six corporations, three individuals and Carnegie Mellon University. The group included the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M. Walken.

After several lean years in the mideighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark.

With players like Barry Bonds, Doug Drabek, Bobby Bonilla and Andy Van Slyke, Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Bucs became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Bonds captured MVP honors in 1990 and 1992, while Drabek won the Cy Young award in '90. Manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. In his 11 seasons at the helm, Leyland won 849 games, placing him third on the club's All-Time Managerial win list.

Pittsburgh was on the brink of a World Series berth in both the 1991 and 1992 season, but the Pirates lost the seventh and deciding game each year to the Atlanta Braves. In 1992, Pittsburgh came within three outs of the Fall Classic. But in the bottom of the ninth inning at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, the Braves triumphed with three runs and won the game 3-2 and the series, four-games-to-three.

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area responded well to the club's success in the nineties as the Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991.

A crowd of 59,568, the largest ever to watch a professional baseball game in Pittsburgh, witnessed the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, played at Three Rivers Stadium on July 12, 1994. In one of the most thrilling All-Star Games ever to be played, the National League prevailed over the American League in extra frames. Fred McGriff helped send the game into extra innings when he delivered a two-run, pinch-hit home run off Lee Smith in the bottom of the ninth inning that tied the score. After the American League failed to score in the top of the 10th inning, the National League broke it's six-game losing streak when Tony Gwynn scored on a double by Moises Alou.

A new chapter of Pirate history began on February 14, 1996, when Kevin McClatchy and his group of investors purchased the storied franchise from Pittsburgh Associates.

Picked by many publications to finish last in 1997, the Pirates remained in the division race until the final weekend of the season and the club was named USA Today's "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season. Major League Baseball also underwent a change in 1997 with the birth of Interleague play. That season, the Pirates welcomed the Kansas City Royals to Three Rivers Stadium on June 13 for the club's first interleague matchup, which Pittsburgh won by a score of 5-3.

While the Bucs contended for the division during the entire 1997 season, one of the most memorable moments of the season came on July 12. That night, pitchers Francisco Cordova and Ricardo Rincon thrilled Pirates fans with the only combined, extra-inning no-hitter in major league history. The game ended in the bottom of the 10th inning when Mark Smith delivered a three-run home run for the 3-0 win.

The 2000 season brought an end to a full century of great moments, a 100-year period which began with three straight National League pennants and ended with an aura of hope and dreams of more championships to come. With a new home on the horizon, the Bucs said goodbye to Three Rivers Stadium with their final game ever played there on October 1, 2000. Three no-hitters, Clemente's 3000th hit, two All-Star Games, countless playoff games, two World Championships and endless summer evenings can be associated with no other place in the history of Pittsburgh than Three Rivers Stadium.

The Pirates closed out their 30-year tenure at Three Rivers Stadium with a 10-9 loss to the Chicago Cubs in the final game of what was the club's home since 1970. Pittsburgh native John Wehner smacked the final home run in the history of the ballpark off Chicago's Jon Lieber. Ironically, Wehner also grounded out to third base for the final out ever at Three Rivers. With the loss, Pittsburgh closed out Three Rivers Stadium with a record of 1.324 wins and 1.082 losses.

In the early morning of February 11, 2001, Pittsburgh bid farewell to Three Rivers when the home of the Pirates and Steelers was imploded.

PNC Park officially opened its gates on April 9, 2001. Regarded by many as the best ballpark ever built, PNC Park is an intimate two-level structure which offers all fans dramatic views of the downtown skyline as well as the natural grass playing surface. After touring all 30 major league ballparks during the summer of 2003, ESPN.com ranked PNC Park as the best in baseball.

The anticipation and joy of a new ballpark turned to sorrow, when on the morning of the first regular season game at PNC Park, a beloved member of the Pirates family was lost when Willie Stargell passed away on April 9, 2001.

ELOPMENT

Despite suffering 100 losses for just the seventh time in club history in 2001, fans came out in record numbers as the Bucs played in front of 19 sellouts and a total of 2,436,139 customers during the inaugural season at PNC Park.

On June 25, 2002, the Pirates registered the 9,000th win in the history of the franchise with a 4-1 victory over the Montreal Expos, thus becoming just the fourth club to produce 9,000 wins.

The Pirates have had a long list of sluggers in their history and Brian Giles added his name to that list during his five seasons in a Bucco uniform. He hit 30 or more home runs in each of his first four seasons with the club, just one of three Pirates to hit 30 or more long balls in four consecutive years (also Hall-of-Famers Ralph Kiner and Willie Stargell). His 165 home runs with Pittsburgh rank sixth in club history.

Catcher Jason Kendall spent each of his first nine big league seasons in a Pittsburgh uniform after being selected in the first round of the 1992 June draft. In that time, he made 1,205 appearances behind the plate. That figure ranks first all-time in the annals of the club, 50 games ahead of George Gibson, who caught for the Bucs from 1906 thru 1915. Kendall surpassed Gibson's 90-year-old record in Los Angeles on August 3, 2004.

For the first time in team history a Pittsburgh player captured Rookie-of-the-Year honors as outfielder Jason Bay took home the honors in 2004. A two-time National League All-Star, Bay was a fan favorite at the 2006 All-Star Game in Pittsburgh.

The national spotlight shined once again on the city of Pittsburgh during the 2006 season as the Major League Baseball All-Star Game was played at PNC Park, marking the fifth time the event has been held in the Steel City. The American League won a dramatic 3-2 decision in the Midsummer Classic as the Pirates became the first team in baseball history to host the All-Star Game in three different venues.

Also in 2006, Freddy Sanchez added his name to the club's record list of 25 batting champions as his .344 average led the National League. Sanchez banged out 200 hits in 2006 and led the N.L. with 53 doubles while being named to his first of two All-Star teams.

On January 18, 2007, Bob Nutting officially assumed control of the ballclub, thus becoming only the sixth principal owner in the Pirates storied history. Following a deep look into the team's operations, Nutting has built a fundamentally different organization by introducing Frank Coonelly as the team's new president on September 13, 2007 and, in-turn, Neal Huntington as the team's new general manager on September 25, 2007. From there the new leadership team has made significant changes to each of the three major areas — Major League manager/coaching staff, Scouting Director and Farm Director, with the goal of building an organization that can consistently compete.

Since 2009, fans have witnessed the debuts of first-round draft picks Andrew McCutchen, Pedro Alvarez, Neil Walker, Gerrit Cole and Tony Sanchez, along with appearances of many other young players, including Starling Marte and Tony Watson.

Clint Hurdle was named manager of the Pirates on November 15, 2010, and in his first three seasons at the helm, the inspirational leader of the club has posted a 245-241 record.

The 2012 Pirates were in first place (alone or tied) a total of 15 days and were over .500 every day from June 3 through September 18.

In addition, Bucco fans showed their great support of the club in 2012 as the Pirates played host to 17 sellouts during the season.

McCutchen emerged as one of the best players in the game, winning a Gold Glove and Silver Slugger award in 2012 while finishing third in the National League MVP voting.

In 2013 the Pirates returned to prominence in the league as they won 94 regular season games and appeared in the postseason for the first time since 1992.

The Pirates, who went 19-9 during the month of May and 17-9 in June, placed five players on the All-Star team - the most since also having five selected to the 1972 Midsummer Classic. Along with three-time All-Star Andrew McCutchen, Pedro Alvarez, Jason Grilli, Jeff Locke and Mark Melancon represented the Bucs at the 2013 All-Star Game, played at Citi Field in New York.

Led by 16-game winner and the National League Comeback Player-of-the-Year Francisco Liriano, the Bucco pitching staff posted 16 shutouts in 2013 and ranked third in the N.L. with a 3.26 ERA; the best mark by the pitching staff since 1984. Grilli (33) and Melancon (16) picked up 49 of the club-record and National League leading 55 saves.

The offense was led by McCutchen, who took home N.L. MVP honors in 2013 after hitting .317 with 97 runs, 38 doubles, 21 home runs, 84 RBI and 27 stolen bases in 157 games.

McCutchen became the sixth player in club history to win the MVP award, joining Dick Groat (1960), Roberto Clemente (1966), Dave Parker (1978), Willie Stargell (1979) and Barry Bonds (1990, 1992).

Silver Slugger award winner Pedro Alvarez shared the league lead in home runs in 2013, as the young slugger smacked 36 long balls to become the first Bucco to lead or share the N.L. lead in homers since Willie Stargell did so with 44 in 1973.

After winning 94 games during the 2013 regular season and finishing second in the N.L. Central division standings, the Pirates defated the Reds in the Wild Card playoff game, played before a sold out crowd at PNC Park on October 1.

The Pirates had a two-games-toone lead in the best of five Division Series playoff against the Cardinals, but dropped the final two games to bring an end to their magical 2013 campaign.

Bucco fans once again showed their outstanding support, as the club produced a record 23 sellouts during the regular season before playing in front of three standing-room only crowds in the postseason, which included a PNC Park record 40,493 attendance during Game Four of the N.L.D.S. vs. St. Louis.

Clint Hurdle also took home some hardware following the 2013 season as he was named the N.L. Manager-of-the Year; just the second Bucco skipper to win the award.

With a deep and talented farm system, which was ranked by Baseball America as the best in baseball, the future once again looks bright for the Pirates and their fans.

[DID YOU KNOW....]

McKechnie Field, the Spring Training home of the Pirates, is the oldest stadium still used for Spring Training and the second-oldest in the Florida State League. It is also the third oldest stadium currently used by a major league team. Only Fenway Park (1912) and Wrigley Field (1914) are older.

*First Night Opener in major league history

1900-1910: The iersey of this period was short-sleeved with no trim except for a dark blue collar. Stockings were dark blue with red stripes and the cap was blue with a white "P". A "PBC" monogram signifying Pittsburgh Baseball Club was also added to the left sleeve later in the decade.

1910-1920: The regular collar was replaced by the short, stand-up "cadet" style with a button collar. Pinstriped material was also introduced. As the team nickname became more accepted, "Pirates" was displayed in capital letters down the button lapel (1912). The cadet-style collar soon gave way to a tapered collar extension, but the button lapel remained solid dark blue with white buttons and a "P-P" straddling the top button (1913-14). Later in this decade, the cap had piping and also included a "P" in white or red.

1921-1932: Standard white uniforms were worn at home and gray on the road with simple graphics and solid colors. The 1925 & '27 championship teams wore the standard capital "P" on its sleeves but not on the jersey. A red "P" was also placed on the solid blue cap.

1933-1937: The Pirate uniforms brightened up considerably with added colors, trim features and graphics. The name "Pirates" was placed across the iersey in an arc of fancy red and blue capital letters. Solid blue belts were included and piping trim on the uniforms included blue and red.

1938-1939: The name "Pirates" appeared on the jersey in script lettering with underline flourish.

1940-1941: The uniform abandons the traditional "P" or "Pirates" for an emblem of an actual buccaneer. The patch was placed on the left breast of both the home and road jerseys. This was the first time an emblem of the team's nickname was ever worn on a game iersey.

1921

1940-1944: A zipper front replaced the button-down jersey.

1942-1947: Team adds an arc "Pirates" (home) and "Pittsburgh" (away).

1948: The team replaced the traditional blue and red with the present day black and gold. The script "Pirates" and "Pittsburgh" was replaced with the block lettering that you still see today. The cap became solid black with a gold "P."

1954: The word "Pittsburgh" is removed from the road jersey, and replaced with "Pirates."

1957: The Pirates became the second team to begin wearing sleeveless jerseys.

1962: Numbers were introduced on the front of the home and road jerseys and have been there ever since.

1970: The Pirates became the first major league club to adopt the new doubleknit fabric uniforms, which they debuted at the first game at the new Three Rivers Stadium in July. The jersey became a pullover with no button or zipper. The pants contained a built-in sash belt. The cap crown was mustard yellow with a black bill. Within two years, nearly every other club was wearing a double-knit uniform.

1976: The Pirates, as well as other clubs, commemorate the National League's centennial by wearing the old striped, pill-box style caps. The Bucs wore yellow caps with a black bill and black stripes.

1977-1979: Abandoned were the traditional white and gray uniforms in exchange for combinations of white, gold, black iand pinstriping. The caps became black with yellow stripes. Players' last names appear on the back of the jerseys for the first time.

1985: The Pirates returned to the basic white and gray uniform.

1987: The Pirates replaced the striped cap in favor of the traditional standard black round crown type.

1990: A script "Pittsburgh" is added to the gray road uniform for the first time since 1952.

1995: The Pirates return to button-down jerseys and belted pants.

1995: Going back to a more traditional look, the Pirates removed the names from the back of the jerseys.

1996: That change lasted only one year, as the Pirates return the names to the back of the jerseys.

1997: The organization introduces a complete new look by wearing an alternate home jersey as well as bringing the color "red" back into the uniform for the first time since 1946.

2001: With the opening of PNC Park, the club enters a "New Era of Baseball."

The team re-introduces the sleeveless jersey as part of both the home and road uniform. The Pirates also become the first team ever to wear a cap with a red underbill (cap worn with the alternate home jersey only).

2005: The Pirates re-introduce pinstripes to the uniform. The alternate uniforms are worn on Sunday home games.

2007: The club introduces a red, sleeveless jersey to be worn on selected home dates.

2009: The Pirates re-introduce sleeves to their home and road jerseys and added a black alternate jersey. The sleeveless pinstriped jersey are worn on Sundays through the end of 2010.

2013: The club introduces an alternate uniform mustard gold cap which will be worn on Sunday home games throughout the season. The pullover style jersey, similar to the one from the early 1970's, will be made of "Cool Base" fabric for improved breathability and increased range of motion. The front of the jersey will feature black "Pirates" lettering outlined in mustard gold on the chest, as well as the player's number below the lettering on the left hand side of the jersey. The players' names have been added to the back of the jerseys to go along with their number, as opposed to the 1970 jerseys that did not feature the names. Black, white and mustard gold piping will be featured on the jersey's collar and sleeves, as well as on the waistband of the pants.

BOLD FACE CAPS - Living

In the 127 seasons in the National League, 1792 players have worn the uniform of the Pittsburgh Pirates. As of February 8, 2014, 800 are living.

The oldest living Pirate is Mike Sandlock, who turns 98 on October 17. The catcher/ infielder made his debut on September 19, 1942 for the Boston Braves and spent his final season (1953) with the Pirates.

The second oldest living Pirate is Steve Nagy, who turns 94 on May 28. The lefthanded pitcher made his debut on April 20, 1947 for the Pirates and made his final appearance with the Washington Senators on June 23, 1950.

Like many teams, the Pirates added uniform numbers to jerseys sometime between 1929-32.

PIRATES RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

BILLY MEYER

RETIRED 1954

Born January 14, 1892 in Knoxville, TN, died March 31, 1957 in Knoxville. Threw and batted righthanded. A catcher with the White Sox and Athletics (1913, 1916-17), Meyer won eight pennants as a manager of minor league clubs from 1926 through 1947 before becoming Pirates manager in 1948. Known for his rapport with players, fans and the press, Meyer managed in Pittsburgh for five seasons, compiling a record of 317-452. He was The Sporting News Manager-of-the-Year in 1948 when the Bucs compiled a record of 83-71. Following his five-year tenure as Pirates manager, Meyer was a Pittsburgh scout for three years.

RETIRED 1987

Born October 27, 1922 in Santa Rita, NM, died February 6, 2014 in Rancho Mirage, CA. Threw and batted righthanded. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1975), Kiner ranks second on club's all-time home run list (301). Won or shared N.L. home run title in each of his seven full seasons with Pittsburgh (1946-1952), a streak unmatched in either league. Hit a club-record 54 homers in 1949 and had a club-record. 567 slugging pct. in Pirates career. Was the key player in 10-man deal with the Cubs on June 4, 1953. Played with Cubs (1953-54) and Cleveland (1955) before back ailment ended his career prematurely. Hit 369 home runs in 10-year career, averaging 7.1 per 100 at-bats, which ranks among the best in major league history.

WILLIE STARGELL

FIRST BASE

RETIRED 1982

Born March 6, 1941 in Earlsboro, OK, died April 9, 2001 in Wilmington, NC. Threw and batted lefthanded. "Pops" compiled a remarkable career in a 21-year span from 1962 through 1982 with the Pirates. In 2,360 games he batted .282 with 475 home runs, seven home runs in post-season play, and 1,540 RBI. The Bucs' all-time home run, RBI and extra base hits king, Willie also ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles and total bases. Willie was a seven-time All-Star pick. In 1979 he was the N.L.'s co-MVP and the MVP in the LCS and World Series. Stargell became the 17th player elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility (inducted in 1988).

BILL MAZEROSKI

SECOND BASE

RETIRED 1987

Born September 5, 1936 in Wheeling, WV. Threw and batted righthanded. His well-chronicled home run against the Yankees gave Pittsburgh the 1960 World Championship. During his 17-year career with Pittsburgh (1956-1972), the Hall-of-Famer won eight Gold Glove awards and earned a reputation as one of the finest fielding second basemen in the history of the game. Among the major league records for second basemen "Maz" holds are: most seasons leading league in assists (nine), most seasons leading league in double plays (eight), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,707). A seven-time N.L. All-Star, he compiled a .260 lifetime average with 138 home runs and 853 runs batted in. Mazeroski was inducted into Hall of Fame in 2001.

PAUL WANER

RETIRED 2007

Born April 16, 1903 in Harrah, OK, died August 29, 1965 in Sarasota, FL. Threw and batted lefthanded. One of the most dominating players in baseball during his 15 years with the Pirates (1926-1939), Waner led all major league players in hits (1,959) during the decade of the '30's. He batted .336 in his rookie campaign of 1926 and became the first player in team history to capture the N.L. Most Valuable Player award a year later. A four-time All-Star and three-time batting champion, "Big Poison" ended his career with 3,152 hits. His .340 average with Pittsburgh ranks first in club history and he ranks among the top 10 in 11 other offensive categories. Waner was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1952.

REVIEW

PIE TRAYNOR

20

THIRD BASE

RETIRED 1972

Born November 11, 1899 in Framingham, MA, died March 16, 1972 in Pittsburgh. Threw and batted righthanded. Harold (Pie) Traynor was one of the finest third basemen in major league history, earning that reputation in a 17-year playing career spent entirely with the Pirates (1920-1935, 1937). Regarded as an outstanding defensive player, Traynor was also adept with the bat, compiling a lifetime .320 average. While he hit just 58 home runs, he managed to drive in 1,273 runs. Pie ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles, triples, total bases, RBI, extra-base hits, batting average and stolen bases. The Hall of Famer (inducted in 1948) also managed the Pirates from 1934 through 1939.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE 21

OUTFIELDER

RETIRED 1987

Born August 18, 1934 in Carolina, P.R., died December 31, 1972 in San Juan, P.R. Threw and batted righthanded. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1973), Roberto Clemente was selected by the Pirates in the player draft when the Brooklyn Dodgers left him unprotected after the 1954 season, his first as a professional. For the next 18 years Clemente starred in the Pirates outfield. He won four N.L. batting crowns and batted .317 in his career, with 240 home runs and 1,305 RBI. He also won 12 Gold Glove Awards. He hit safely in all seven games in both the 1960 and 1971 World Series, winning the Series MVP Award in 1971 when he batted .414 with two homers against Baltimore. Clemente was a 12-time All-Star and the N.L. MVP in 1966. He ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in 12 offensive categories. He died with four others when a plane carrying supplies to earthquake-stricken Nicaragua crashed.

HONUS WAGNER 33

SHORTSTOP

RETIRED 1952

Born February 24, 1874 in Carnegie, PA, died December 6, 1955 in Carnegie. Threw and batted righthanded. One of five players originally elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1936, Honus Wagner is widely regarded as the best shortstop to ever play the game. "The Flying Dutchman" won eight N.L. batting crowns - second only to Ty Cobb's 12 titles - during a 17-year stretch in which he batted over .300 in each season. Wagner came to Pittsburgh in 1900 after three seasons with Louisville, a franchise that had disbanded. He played with the Bucs until 1917 and ended his career with a .329 average and 101 homers. Wagner was a coach with the Pirates between 1933 and 1951. He ranks among the Pirates' top 10 in 11 offensive categories.

DANNY MURTAUGH

H 40

MANAGER

RETIRED 1977

Born, October 8, 1917 in Chester, PA, died December 2, 1976 in Chester. Threw and batted righthanded. A second baseman with the Phillies, Braves and Pirates (1941-43, 46-51), Danny Murtaugh was one of the most successful managers in Pirates history. He managed the Bucs in four different stints during 15 seasons between 1957 and 1976. During that time he became one of only 36 managers to win 1,000 games, compiling a record of 1,115-950, his win total ranking second on the Pirates all-time list to Fred Clarke's 1,422. He led the Pirates to five Eastern Division crowns and two World Series Championships (1960 and 1971). He was named The Sporting News Manager-of-the-Year in 1960 and 1970.

JACKIE ROBINSON 42

OUTFIELDER

RETIRED LEAGUE-WIDE IN 1997

Born January 31, 1919 in Cairo, GA, died October 24, 1972 in Stamford, CT. Threw and batted righthanded. Known forever as the first black player in the major leagues, Jack Roosevelt Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956, helping them to six pennants in a 10-year span and to their only World Championship in 1955. He was named the N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year in 1947 and the league's MVP in 1949. A six-time All-Star, Robinson also became the first man to integrate the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962. In 1997, as a tribute to the legacy he created, Major League Baseball retired his number 42 league-wide on the 50th Anniversary of his breaking the game's color barrier. The Pirates officially retired his number in a pre-game ceremony on July 12, 1997.

DID YOU KNOW...

That Dick Groat was named the National League MVP in 1960 after leading the league in batting (.325) and knocking in 50 runs in 138 games for the World Champs. He also became the first right-handed Pirates hitter to win the batting title since Honus Wagner in 1911. From 1956 to 1962, Groat teamed with second baseman Bill Mazeroski to give Pittsburgh one of the game's strongest middle infields; he led the N.L. in double plays a record five times, in putouts four times and in assists twice.

I'M BETTER WITH BLUE

Alexandre Brito spends a lot of time on the road. So he needs a health plan that covers him coast-to-coast and protects his family while he's gone. For him, the best choice for both is Highmark. Because he knows what members have known for generations, when it comes to a plan that's accepted here at home – and everywhere the roads take you – you're better with Blue.

DIRECTOR OF AMATEUR SCOUTING

JOE DELLICARRI

Joe DelliCarri is in his third season as the Director of Amateur Scouting. He was promoted to the position on September 16, 2011, after serving the organization as its Assistant Director of Scouting since November of 2006. He joined the Pirates scouting staff on November 7, 2005 and spent the 2006 season as the East Coast Supervisor.

Prior to joining the Pirates, DelliCarri spent 10 seasons in the New York Mets scouting department, working as a South Regional Supervisor (2001-2005) and an Area Supervisor (1996-2000).

Originally selected by the Mets in the 38th round of the 1989 June draft, Joe made his professional debut with St. Lucie that summer. He spent five seasons in the New York minor league system before being traded to Detroit on 2/17/94. An infielder during his playing days, DelliCarri retired following the players strike in 1995. He returned to the New York organization and served the Mets as their Double-A Hitting Coach at Binghamton during the '95 campaign before joining the scouting staff in 1996.

Joe was born on January 16, 1967 in Bronx, NY, and graduated from Bergen Catholic High School in Oradell, NJ. He received his bachelor's degree in Sociology of Law from the University of Pennsylvania. DelliCarri and his wife Cindy have three daughters: Allison (13), Julia (11) and Paige (9).

DIRECTOR OF LATIN AMERICAN SCOUTING

RENE GAYO

Rene Gayo is in his 11th season as a member of the Pirates Scouting department. In his role, he coordinates and supervises the club's International Scouts in attempts to sign players on the global level - with a heavy emphasis in Latin America.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Gayo spent five years (1999-2003) as the Director of International Scouting/Latin American Crosschecker with the Cleveland Indians. His tenure with the Tribe began in October of 1993 as an area scout, a position he held for eight seasons (1994-2000) mainly in South Texas and Louisiana. When his role on the international level began to expand during his tenure with the Indians, Rene was responsible for signing Rafael Perez, Willy Taveras, Edward Mujica, Danys Baez, Jose Constanza and Jhonny Peralta among others.

Gayo can also lay claim to signing current Pittsburgh prospects Gregory Polanco and Alen Hanson, Polanco, who was Pittsburgh's 2013 Minor League Player-of-the-Year, entered the 2014 season as the organization's top prospect. Hanson was a Florida State League All-Star in 2013, a South Atlantic League All-Star in 2012 and ranked as the club's fifth-best prospect entering this season.

Gayo played one season of professional baseball in the Cincinnati Reds organization as a catcher before turning his attention to scouting and player development. He served the Pirates as a part time scout for four years (1989-1992) and the Texas Rangers in 1993 before joining the Indians.

Rene is of Cuban descent and was born on 9/21/62 in Miami, FL. He was raised in Chicago and currently resides in Alvin, TX, with his wife of 25 years, Leticia, and son Manny (19). Gayo attended Gordon Technical High School in Chicago, IL, where he lettered in baseball. hockey and speech & debate before going on to earn an economics degree from St. Mary's University in San Antonio, TX. Rene also played baseball for two years at St. Mary's.

[DEVELOPMENT STAFF]

DIRECTOR OF MINOR

LARRY BROADWAY

Larry Broadway is in his third season as Pittsburgh's Director of Minor League Operations, having been named to his current post on September 16, 2011. He was the organization's Area Scouting Supervisor the previous two seasons, responsible for the four-corners area of the United States (AZ, CO, NM, UT, Las Vegas and El Paso TX).

In his current role, Larry oversees the day-to-day minor league operations, including the club's seven affiliates in the United States as well as the organization's Academy in the Dominican Republic.

League OPERATIONS

Under his direction and the dedication of the entire development staff, Pittsburgh's eight minor league affiliates combined for a 444-394 record and a .530 winning percentage in 2013. The .530 winning percentage was the seventh-best among all organizations in Major League Baseball and five of the eight affiliates advanced to the postseason. This past January, Baseball America ranked the Pirates as having the top farm system in all of baseball.

A graduate of Duke University, Broadway was selected by the Montreal Expos in the third round of the 2002 First-Year Player Draft and made his professional debut with the Vermont Expos that summer, homering in his first at bat. After hitting .295 at three different levels in 2003, Larry entered the '04 campaign ranked by Baseball America as the franchise's third-best prospect.

Broadway produced one of his finest offensive seasons in 2004, batting .270 and hitting a career-high 22 home runs and knocking in 72 runs with Double-A Harrisburg. For his efforts that season, he entered the 2005 campaign ranked by Baseball America as Washington's second-best prospect and as the Nationals' top hitting prospect by USA Today Sports Weekly.

In his eight minor league seasons (2002-09), Broadway compiled a .272 batting average, going 749-for-2744 with 166 doubles, 12 triples, 104 home runs and 413 RBI in 804 games. He was a member of the South Atlantic League All-Star team in 2003 and the Pacific Coast League All-Star team in 2006. His final season came in 2009 when he played at the Triple-A level within the Pittsburgh organization, making 69 appearances with Indianapolis.

In addition to making 711 appearances at first base, 23 in left field and four in right field during his professional playing career, Broadway recorded a 3.48 ERA (10.1ip/4er) in nine games as a pitcher. He posted a 2.70 ERA (6.2ip/2er) in five games with Triple-A Columbus in 2008 and a 4.91 ERA (3.2ip/2er) in four games with Indy in 2009.

Larry was born on December 17, 1980, in Miami, FL, and grew up in West Palm Beach. He currently resides in Bradenton, FL, with his wife Amanda and son Bourne (1). In 2009, Larry received the Pirates Community Commitment Award for his community service while playing with Triple-A Indianapolis.

The Dominican Summer League Pirates 1 team posted a 40-31 record in 2013 while finishing in third place and 13.0 games out of first place behind the eventual league champion DSL Rangers in the Boca Chica North Division. The team finished on a strong note by winning eight of its final 10 games of the season.

Jose Regaldo led the staff with six wins while also posting a 2.60 ERA in his 14 starting assignments. Regaldo also finished the season ranked third among Dominican Summer League pitchers with a 0.89 WHIP and with the fewest walks per 9.0 innings pitched (just four free passes in 69.1 innings). Carlos Ruiz led the staff with five saves while also registering a 1.20 ERA in his 18 appearances out of the bullpen.

Pablo Reyes paced the team with a .304 average in his 52 games played. Reyes got off to a fast start to the season after hitting .338 with 15 RBI in 21 games in June. Julio De La Cruz led the team with 37 RBI in his 61 games played while finishing second on the team with four home runs. Yunelky Adams led the team with five home runs despite playing in just 19 games. Luis Benitez went 33-for-43 in stolen base attempts, which ranked fourth among all Dominican Summer League players.

HONUS WAGNER

DEDICATED 1955 [FORBES FIELD]

TODAY

The Honus Wagner statue has had three different "homes" since being dedicated on April 30, 1955. Originally, the Wagner statue was located in Schenley Park, close to the Pirates early home, Forbes Field, It was then moved to Three Rivers Stadium and erected outside Gate C on July 21, 1972.

The statue is now located at the home plate entrance to PNC Park. Honus Wagner's statue was sponsored by the Pittsburgh Professional Baseball Association as a lasting tribute to his character and abilities. Contributions to the statue fund were in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $1.00 and were received from thousands of individuals, organizations and foundations. Names of all contributors were then inscribed on one continuous roll and put in a stainless steel, hermetically-sealed tube before being placed inside the statue.

"No one player has ever brought more honor to the game of baseball than has Honus Wagner," said former Pirates President Bill Benswanger, who served as master of ceremonies at the original statue dedication in 1955.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

DEDICATED 1994 THREE RIVERS STADIUM

TODAY

The Roberto Clemente statue was dedicated on July 8, 1994, to kick off All-Star Week in Pittsburgh. It was originally erected outside Gate A at Three Rivers Stadium and is now located outside the Center Field Gate to PNC Park, a few steps away from the Roberto Clemente Bridge.

The base of the statue is black granite and stainless steel with a diamond set in the center. Glass blocks represent first, second and third base. Beneath the glass is soil from Puerto Rico -- where Roberto first played the game -- Forbes Field and Three Rivers Stadium. The soil is marked as "hallowed ground," a place of transcendence where the past, present and future of baseball meet and to which each individual can bring his or her own memories.

Encircling the diamond and set in the stainless steel is a timeline of Clemente's life. Fifteen inscriptions run counter-clockwise around the diamond, beginning at homeplate and ending somewhere between third base and home. There is space for a 16th inscription, but it remains empty. a reflection of the incomplete circle of Roberto Clemente's life. Susan Wagner sculpted the 12-foot bronze statue of Clemente and L.D. Astorino & Associates, Ltd., served as the architect of the project.

WILLIE STARGELL

On September 29, 2000, the Pirates announced that a statue of Willie Stargell would be unveiled at the club's new home, PNC Park. The announcement was made during the last weekend of Pittsburgh's final games at Three Rivers Stadium.

Stargell, however, did not live to see the day he would be forever immortalized at the statue unveiling on April 7, 2001. After not being able to attend the unveiling ceremony because of an illness, the Hall-of-Famer passed away in the early morning hours of April 9, the same day PNC Park officially opened its doors to begin a new era of Pirates baseball.

The 12-foot bronze statue stands along Federal Street at the entrance to left field at PNC Park. At the base of the statue is a quote from Stargell: "Last night, coming in from the airport, we came through the tunnel and the city opened up its arms and I felt at home." Also throughout the base of the statue are "Stargell stars," which the Pirates all-time home run leader handed out to his teammates toward the conclusion of his 21-year playing career with Pittsburgh.

DEDICATED 2000

is located behind the bleacher seats in left field, along the main level of the ballpark.

Kiner played for the Pirates for just seven seasons (1946-1952), but still on the club's all-time home run list behind Willie Stargell. He was inducted in

The Pirates unveiled a sculpture of Hall-of-Fame outfielder Ralph Kiner at PNC Park on April 7, 2003, as part of the club's opening day festivities. It

Kiner played for the Pirates for just seven seasons (1946-1952), but still ranks second on the club's all-time home run list behind Willie Stargell. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1975 and had his No. 4 jersey retired by the Pirates in 1987. Kiner holds many club records and is still one of only three National League players to ever hit eight home runs in one week

The club announced it would immortalize the former slugger in March of 2003. Kiner won or shared the National League home run title in each of his seven seasons with Pittsburgh, a streak still unmatched in either league. The hands and bat were sculpted by Susan Wagner, the artist who also designed the Clemente, Stargell, and Mazeroski statues.

DEDICATED 2003

HISTORY OF THE NEGRO LEAGUES

The Pirates tribute to the Negro Leagues features life-size bronze statues of former Negro Leagues greats Cool Papa Bell, Oscar Charleston, Josh Gibson, Judy Johnson, Buck Leonard, Satchel Paige and Smokey Joe Williams. Each statue is accompanied by an interactive kiosk allowing fans to view a personal video and learn about the player's background, Hall of Fame honors and playing statistics.

The one-of-a-kind interactive exhibit was built to honor and preserve the history of the Negro Leagues (1920-1958) and the great players from the Homestead Grays and Pittsburgh Crawfords.

The exhibit, which had been located just inside the Left Field Gate Entrance at PNC Park the previous seven years, has been moved to another location for the 2013 season (most likely the Riverwalk beyond the outfield wall).

DEDICATED 2006

The multiple elements of the interactive experience share the inspiring story of the remarkable people who helped revolutionize the sports and business world in their own way.

BILL MAZEROSKI

DEDICATED 2010

As part of the 50th anniversary season of the 1960 World Series Championship, the Pirates announced plans on January 29, 2010, to erect a statue of Hall-of-Fame second baseman Bill Mazeroski.

The 12-foot bronze statue was officially unveiled on September 5, 2010, Mazeroski's birthday, and stands at the end of Mazeroski Way, which is located at the right field entrance to PNC Park. Susan Wagner, who sculpted the Clemente, Stargell and Kiner statues also produced this likeness of Maz.

Mazeroski remains the only player in Major League Baseball history to hit a game-winning home run in Game 7 of a World Series. His blast off New York's Ralph Terry on October 13, 1960, gave the Bucs a 10-9 victory in the deciding game played at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh.

Elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2001, the Pirates retired Mazeroski's uniform #9 in 1987. He was a seven-time All-Star and holds numerous Major League record for second basemen, including most seasons leading the league in assists (nine), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,707).

BROADCASTING INFORMATION

GREG BROWN

PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Greg Brown is in his 21st season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the Pirates. Only Bob Prince and Lanny Frattare have called more games than Brown, who has described the action of more than 3,200 games in his career behind the mic.

Known for his outgoing personality and passion for the ballclub, Brown has made the phrase "Raise The Jolly Roger" synonymous with a Pirates victory and "Clear The Deck, Cannonball Coming" his signature home run call.

Greg's association with the Pirates began in 1979, when he interned in the Promotions department while attending Point Park College. Following the World Series that year, Brown worked as the clubhouse manager during the Instructional League program in Bradenton, Florida. His 10-year stint in the Bucs front office included work in the Sales, Public Relations and Broadcasting departments. Greg also served as the team's public address announcer during the 1987 campaign. In 1988, he was a sports anchor on WFMJ-TV in Youngstown, OH.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh's broadcast team in 1994, Brown spent five seasons (1989-1993) doing play-by-play and color commentary for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Association (now International League) as well as hosting a sportstalk show on WGR Radio. He also worked as a color analyst and a pre- and post-game show host for the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League for five seasons (1989-93). Also during his time in Buffalo, Greg served as a play-by-play announcer for University of Buffalo basketball on WGR Radio and as a broadcaster for the Empire TV Sports Network.

Brown's dedication for the Pirates extends to his efforts away from the broadcast booth as well. In addition to various off-season appearances in the community and his work on the annual Pirates caravan and PirateFest events, Greg spearheaded the "Gloves for Kids" program, which raised money for much-needed equipment and gloves for youth baseball and softball organizations in underserved areas around the Pittsburgh area. During the course of the season, Brown teams up with broadcast partner Steve Blass and hosts several pre-game receptions for members of the 65 Roses Club, which is part of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Brown is a native of Washington, D.C. He currently resides in Leet Township with his wife Kim and son Ryan (15).

PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

TIM NEVERETT

Tim Neverett joined the Pittsburgh broadcast team on December 18, 2008 and is now in his sixth season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the club.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Neverett spent four years working for FSN Rocky Mountain, where he spent the 2008 campaign serving as both the pre-game and post-game studio host for Colorado Rockies games. During his tenure with FSN Rocky Mountain, Tim also served as a play-by-play announcer for Rockies games, college football, basketball, hockey and lacrosse, as well as arena football and track and field.

Neverett was also one of the original play-by-play and studio voices for the mtn, The Mountain West Conference Sports Network, where he called a number of football and basketball games along with hosting a weekly roundtable studio show. In addition, Tim worked as a weekend talk show host for the nationally syndicated Sporting News Radio Network, where his show was heard on over 160 stations nationwide. He also served as a Sports Talk Host for ESPN 560 in Denver, Colorado, where he was named the 2005 Best Radio Sports-Talk Host by Westword magazine in its annual "Best of Denver" issue.

Neverett also called baseball, softball, basketball and soccer during the 2004 Athens Olympics and 2008 Beijing Olympics. During the 2002 Salt Lake City Olympics and 2006 Olympic Games in Torino he handled play-by-play duties for hockey and numerous skiing events. The multi-national feeds were seen in more than 100 countries.

Prior to his time in Denver, Neverett lived in Las Vegas, where he called games on radio and TV for the Padres and Dodgers Triple-A teams. He also served as the play-by-play voice for Las Vegas' International Hockey League team for five seasons, then added college baseball and football at UNLV to his duties.

Neverett began his baseball broadcasting career in 1985 with Pittsburgh's Double-A affiliate in the Eastern League. At the age of 19, he had the opportunity to fill in calling radio play-by-play of Nashua Pirates games, which led to more innings and ultimately a schedule of games that season.

Tim has three sons; Matthew (19), Kyle (17) and Drew (14). He is a graduate of Emerson College in Boston where he lettered in baseball for four seasons.

STEVE BLASS

The 2014 season marks Steve Blass' 55th year of involvement with the Pirates and his 29th behind the microphone as a color commentator. He has been associated with the club since signing his first professional contract on June 27, 1960.

For the 10th straight season, Steve will work only those games played at PNC Park. He will continue in his role as an analyst on both radio and TV. Only Lanny Frattare (33 years) spent more years behind the Pirates microphone than Blass (28): Bob Prince also served 28 years as a Bucco broadcaster.

A right-handed pitcher, Blass made his professional debut with Kingsport in 1960 and his Major League debut with the Bucs on May 10, 1964. He joined the big league team permanently in 1966 and went on to pitch a total of 10 seasons in the Majors, compiling a 103-76 record, 57 complete games and 16 shutouts in 282 games (231 starts). Steve ranks seventh on the club's all-time list in strikeouts (896).

In his third full season in the Majors in 1968, Steve went 18-6, leading the league with a .750 winning percentage while posting a 2.12 ERA, 12 complete games and a career-high seven shutouts. His 2.12 ERA ranked fifth in the N.L. as St. Louis' Bob Gibson led the circuit with a 1.12 ERA.

During a five-year span from 1968 thru 1972, Blass was one of the best pitchers in the National League as he compiled a 78-44 record, 50 complete games and a 3.05 ERA. He won a career-high 19 games in 1972 and was named to the National League All-Star team that season.

In the 1971 World Series against the Baltimore Orioles, Blass recorded two complete game victories, allowing only seven hits and two runs in 18 innings of work. He finished second in the voting for World Series MVP behind teammate Roberto Clemente and remains the last National League pitcher to throw a complete game in Game Seven of a World Series.

After retiring following the 1974 season, Blass remained in the Pittsburgh area and worked in private business, while continuing to do community service for the ballclub.

In 1983, he worked with the legendary Hall of Fame broadcaster Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts and was also retained the following year when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment. Blass officially joined the Pittsburgh Pirates radio broadcast crew in 1986.

A native of Canaan, CT, Steve and his wife Karen live in Upper St. Clair. They have two sons, David and Christopher, and five grandchildren. In 2002, Steve became the 13th recipient of the "Pride of the Pirates" award, a yearly honor (since 1990) which recognizes a member of the Pirates family who has demonstrated the qualities of sportsmanship, dedication and outstanding character during a lifetime of service.

On September 10, 2009, Steve defied the astronomical odds and recorded a pair of holes-in-one in the same round of golf. According to Golf Digest, the odds of a golfer making two aces in the same round are one in 67 million.

BOB WALK

Bob Walk is in his 21st season as a member of the Pirates broadcast crew. He joins Greg Brown as being one of only five men with at least 20 years of service behind the microphone for the Bucs on radio.

The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 of his 14 years pitching in the Major Leagues with Pittsburgh (1984-1993). He compiled a 105-81 lifetime record, which included an 82-61 mark with the Pirates.

Walk's professional career began with Spartanburg in 1977 after he was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 3rd round of the 1976 June draft. He made his big league debut with the Phillies in 1980 and was the starting pitcher in Game One of the World Series that October against Kansas City.

In the spring of 1981, Walk was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Gary Matthews. He spent three seasons in the Atlanta organization before being acquired by Pittsburgh in 1984.

Bob was a 1988 National League All-Star and he posted six straight winning seasons from 1987 to 1992. One of his finest moments in a Pirates uniform came in 1992 when he pitched a 7-1, complete-game victory over the Atlanta Braves in Game Five of the National League Championship Series.

Walk, a native of Newhall, CA, resides in Wexford with his wife Lorrie. They have three sons; Tommy (34), Johnny (32) and Ronny (24). Tommy and his wife, Dominique, are the proud parents of daughters Makayla (11) and Kylie (8). Johnny and his wife, Nikki, are expecting their first child in May 2014.

Pittsburgh native John Wehner is in his 10th season as a member of the Pirates broadcast team, having joined the crew prior to the 2005 season. He serves as an analyst on both radio and TV, working all road games and a handful of games played at PNC Park in Pittsburgh.

Entering the 2014 campaign, John has spent a total of 23 seasons in the Pittsburgh organization (1988-1996, 1999-2001 and 2003-2012). Prior to being named to the broadcast team, John spent time as a coach with the Double-A Altoona Curve (2003-2004) after serving the Pirates as a special instructor during spring training in 2002.

ANALYST

He saw his last action in the Major Leagues with the Pirates in 2001. He hit the last home run in the history of Three Rivers Stadium on October 1, 2000 off Chicago's Jon Lieber and also made the final out. In 11 seasons in the Major Leagues, John compiled a .249 batting average, hit four home runs and collected 54 RBI in 461 games. In addition, he shares the Major League record of playing 99 consecutive errorless games at third base (also Jeff Cirillo).

Wehner is a graduate of Pittsburgh's Carrick High School and attended the University of Indiana, where he played baseball for three years. He resides in Cranberry Township, PA, with his wife Brandie and has five children; sons Tyler (22) and Brandon (20) and daughters Hailey (15), Brooke (13) and Hannah (11).

THOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of hits by the number of at bats.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine and then divide that number by the number of innings pitched.

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks, hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING AVERAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit-by-pitch, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games, which may include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitch, etc.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest earned run average with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: The fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

- (1) A catcher participates as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
- (2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
- (3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: if another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

NOTE: These figures DO NOT determine Rawlings Gold Glove winners at the end of the season.

Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A ROOKIE: A player with no more than 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during the previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-man player limit (excluding time in military service).

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinchhitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit. The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak, If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

DETERMINING GAMES AHEAD/BEHIND: Subtract the team's wins from the first place club's wins and subtract the first place club's losses from the team's losses. Add the results and divide by two.
